CRICKET: A WEEKLY RECORD OF THE GAME.

THE TRAVESTY OF CRICKET.

The lords of three-day cricket have humbled themselves before the idol of gladiatorialism. Three summers hence we shall have nine of the sixteen weeks of the cricket season consumed by Triangular Tests. It is assumed that the executive of the scheme will not be trying the public so high as to play more than one Test in any one week; such a trial would be over-straining the nerves of the Gladiators; the straining the nerves of the Gladiators; the gate money might be affected. Let us be frank. Is not at least one very big eye— one that reminds us of the weird "Nunquam dormio" on the front page of old Bell's Life—set on the "gate" when Test cricket is discussed? In the elaborate scheme issued from Lord's the manner of the collection and distribution of profits absorbs as much space as the outline of the cricket scheme space as the outline of the cricket scheme.

and distribution of profits absorbs as much space as the outline of the cricket scheme. Froude tells somewhere in the "Queen's Prime Ministers" that one of the most famous, on being told that the bells were ringing for the declaration of war, observed that the public would soon be wringing its hands. And so those who, in the intoxication of their joy on conversion to Mr. Abe Bailey's scheme for the English cricket grounds, may awaken to find that in their Test delirium they have stabbed county cricket. The blow has been given when county cricket had need of nutriment; its blood had been weakened by golf and over-professionalism; here is the great county of Surrey reduced to a wholly professional side; here is Middlesex parted with its glories. Not even Australian importation has given either Surrey or Middlesex its old stand in cricket. And yet it is doubtful whether club cricket in quantity and quality in any part of England can compare with that of Surrey and Middlesex—and Kent (we had almost forgotten Kent). Kent stands by itself in cricket. It is the last of the strongholds where three-day cricket is played for oricket's sake. cricket. It is the last of the strongholds where three day cricket is played for cricket's sake.

Cricket's sake. There would be everything to say for these Tests were they merely Tests of sportsman-ship between amateurs with a slight leaven of professionalism. Their development spells more professionalism than ever. We have every admiration for our colonial kinsmen, for their grit, for their intense skill; but they themselves make no secret of their financial ideas in these trips. And in the circumstances it is as well that the Triangular tournament should not have too heavy a setting of sport—let's strain a point and say that it is half finance and half sport. The smaller counties may gain something in the division of the spoils, but they will lose something by the inevitable contraction of the country fortunes that must have the county fixtures that must be a corollary of the presence of two colonial teams in one season. . . .

Our Test cricket this season is rather unfortunate for the Triangular company which is disposing of the remaining glories of county cricket with all the hilarity with which Charles Surface got rid of his ancestors. We Charles Surface got rid of his ancestors. We doubt if they were pressed whether they would hold the little portrait of Oliver in the shape of the 'Varsity match. It is with them a case of Test—and after that Test. And all this for such travesty of real cricket as England played at Lord's, Headingley, and Old Trafford. Some of us will begin to think that this fate in the Tests is merely the rationation of the debasement. the retributive requitement for the debasement of a great game from a sport to a fanaticism.  $-The Observer, \begin{bmatrix} Clark ... & 10 & 2 & 39 & 1 \\ Orr & ... & 14 & 2 & 51 & 4 \end{bmatrix} King \dots 5 & 0 & 21 & 1 \\ \end{bmatrix}$

YORKSHIRE 2ND XI. v. DURHAM. Played at Harrogate on July 12 and 13 and won by Yorkshire 2nd XI. by 234 runs. Score and analysis —

August 5, 1909.

NEWCASTLE DAILY JOURNAL: TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY 13, 14 JULY 1909-1.

MINOR COUNTIES.

A Dunelmian Collapse at Harrogate.

Harrogate. The enturn match between Yorkabire II. and Dur-ham was commenced in beautiful, munny weather as Harrogate, yeaterday. Both sides were strongly repre-ented. On an uncertain wicket, Tattersall, upon win-ning she tors, batted first. The game fluctuated in an extrawrdinary manner throughout the day. Yorkahire had aix wicken down for 29 runs, but the last four wickets increased the score to 113. Durham's innings, however, was consistent in that the whole side batted badly. Eight wickets were down for a miserable 13, and is certainly looked as if the follow-on would not even be asvet, but the next wicket was the stand of the innings, no less than 10 being addid, miking the total 23, the last wicket also talling at this total. The Dunelmians were in only fifty minutes, being dispesed of in fifteen overs and four balls. Broadbent and Drake, who had easily carried off the hatting honours, adding furtifier to their laure's in bowling, the former taking five wickets for twelve runs, and the later four for cleare. As if to show up the Northerners' weakness, the Yorkshiremen batted with supreme confidence in their second innings. 50 going up in three-quarters of an hour, and the hundred in an hour and a half. Smith ear the batsmen the most trouble. Yorkshire finished off with a victory well in sight. Bores:--YORKSHIRK 2ND--las innings. 12

DURHAM BEATEN.

Easy Victory of Yorkshire Seconds at Harrogate.

At Harrogate. When the match at Harrogate was resumed vestorday the Yorkshire team were 218 runs on with five wickets in hand, and they were 218 runs on with five wickets in hand, and they were in what hope Durham had of pulling the match out of the fire was practically dead when the Yorkshiremen had concluded the second innings, the Dural-mians having no less than 322 runs to get for victory. Unfortunately, they did not give their aupporters the consolution of having even made a good struggle, for they again signafly fuiled with the bat, Broadbent and Drake again prov-ing altogether too good for them. Only when Turnbull and Coulson were to-gether was there any prospect of a respectable total, but with this pair leaving just before lunch the last chapter was soon finished, the county of broadacres winning in very easy fashion by 234 runs. Broadbent had the splendid record for the match of even wickets for 46 runs, and Drake had the almost equally good record of sight wickets for 36 runs. ### YORKSHIRE SECOND ELEVEN v. DURHAM.

HANDSOME VICTORY FOR THE COLTS.

Durham fell very easy victims to the Yorkshire Becond Eleven at Herrogate yesterday. They never recovered from the sorry mees which Broadbent and Drake made of their batting on Monday, and failing once more before the attack of these two bowlers, they leat the match by 264 sume. No arouse can be made once more before the atLack of Media two bowkers, may least the match by 294 runs. No excuse can be made for the failure of the Durham batting yeaterday. The wicket was lifeless, and assisted the bowlers but little, and yet Durham could do no more than score 87 runs in a state of the Westerday. and yet Durham could do no more than score 87 runs in their second venture. That was after the Yorkshire "tall" had added 103 runs to the overnight score of 128 in an hour arid fifty minutes. The inforence is obvious. It was bowling of a superior quality sgainst which Durham had to contend, and in the result Broadbent and Drake are to be credited with the chied honours of the match. It is a reasonable assumption that as Yorkshire colts they will be persovered with by the County Committee. Some evidence of that is afforded by the announcement that Broadbent's name was added yesterday to the list of players retained by was added yesterday to the list of players retained by the County Club, and that he will next season be allocated, under the Young Players' Scheme, to one of the Yorkehire Council clubs. It is well that a player f each variable should be here in the sound which of such promise should be kept in the county which

It is well that a player of such promise should be kept in the county which here reads the the Yorkshire count in the the second trial with the Yorkshire count which the second trial with the Yorkshire count was hered him. That was allocated very promising style in second read was particularly successful with the Yorkshire count was particularly successful with the best in the the second trial with the Yorkshire count was particularly successful with the best in the the second trial with the Yorkshire count was particularly successful with this on drives. He never gave a chance, and such good style as he allowed was remarkable in so young a player for he is yet only twenty years of ago. He and Helesdaw were together when play was resumed yes torky morning. They had added to the overhight second 127 when Helesdaw and the other was bewled, sixth man, by Smith. Mr. Textremal was cought at forward quare leg off Theokersy, with the total at 166, and without any addition to the out and taken three with the partnership of Okroyd and Watsen, which was no tiesefved until Mr. Bewick took up the attack. The aktor had the Dewhury man given out leg before when the partnership of Okroyd and Watsen, which we are dismissed the had made 60 in a perfecting mining, which had lasted two hours and the minites. ### BROADBENT AND THE COUNTY CLUB.

Negotiations have for some time been in pro-gross between the Yorkshire County Chemittee and Broadbent with a view to his retention next sensor on the list of county players. Following upon his ex-cellent bewling performances in the Yorkshire Becond Eleven match against Durham, terms have now been arranged, and its will be placed on the list of players retained by the County Chib. Next senson he will, under the Young Players Scheme, be allocated to one of the Yorkshire Council clubs-probably Loods or Bheffield United. This arrangement will give much satisfaction to graduated as a cricketer before taking up his present professional engagement at Uddingston, in Scotland, Broadbent, who is 28 years of ago, has distinguished himself on many occasion this section, and his suc-cess whoenever be has played with the Yorkshire Second Eleven has demonstrated that he is a bowler much above the average in second class cricket.
