GLAMORGAN v. DEVON.

GLAMORGAN v. DEVON.

The return match between Glamorgan and Devon in the Minor Counties Championship was commenced at Cardiff yesterday. The wicket was rather spongy after heavy rain, but atill it played easily, and general surprise was exhibited when Olbson, after winning the toss, elected to put Devon in to bat. Devon made one change from the eide that met Carmarthenshire, Captain Christian coming in vice the Hon. D. Scott, and in the home side Stapleton made his first appearance in a county engagement Creber opened the bowling, and off the third ball ared down he falled to take a hard straight return from Wilson. Afterwards Wilson played delightful cricket, and monopolized the towling, scoring 30 while Lieut. Harrison was getting 6. The first wheek fell at 43. Nash dismissing Harrison. Light sent up the half-century with a drive to the boundary off Hacker, but Nash gained his wieket at 50, play having been in progress exactly one hour. In his next over Nash hit down Wilson's leg stump, the retiring bataman having scored 22 in 65 minutes. Hacker spread-cagled Shelley's wicket with the first ball. With Hooman and Davies together the run getting slowed down. At Bi Maxwell relieved Hacker, and with his fourth delivery disposed of Hooman. Seven runs later Maxwell gained his second wheel, Crusys playing late and being howled. Further successes fell to the Swansea trundler, Sturi, Waller, and Tamworth all falling to him in two overs. At this point Maxwell had taken five wickets for 5 r.ms. With the score at 36 for rine the adjournment was made for lunch. With Mills only 8 on the board Sweet-Racott left, b. w. waller, and Tamworth all falling to him in two overs. At this point with a surface, the innings come had been and Barcrott, the 50 appearing after 30 minutes play. At 63 Christian crossed over, and Light, bowling from the football cnd. was immediately lifted to the boundary by Richus After making sonne good staves Bancett was hoaded in trying to drive Light. Riche's contribution included six boundaries. The im

MAXWELL TAKES SIX DEVON WICKETS FOR SIX.

GLAMORGAN IN A STRONG POSITION.

The return match between Glamorgan and Devon in the Misor Counties Chemplonship was commenced at Cardiff on Wednesday in fine weether. The wicket was rather spongy after Tuesday's heavy rain, but still it played easily, and general surprise was exhibited when Gloson, after winning the toss, elected to put Devon in to bat. Devon made one change from the side stapiston, of Plymouth (Merthyr), made his first appearance in a county engagement. Creber opened the bowling of the third bettern from Wilson.
