OBITUARY.

MR. R. HALLEY.

Mr. Russell Halley, at one time a prominent New Zealand cricketer, died at Wellington on July 6th at the age of forty-nine. His first appearance in a representative match was for Canterbury against Wellington at Wellington in 1886-7, when he and Dunlop, bowling unchanged throughout, dismissed Wellington for 66 and 34 and won the game for their side by 110 runs. Dunlop took ten wickets for 36 runs and Halley, who at one period bowled 50 balls for one run and five wickets, nine for 52. Halley never did quite so well again in a match of such importance, although he took six wickets for 50 runs for XVIII of Canterbury against Shrewsbury's Team at Hagley Park in March, 1888. He was a left-hand medium-paced bowler and a fair bat.

MINOR COUNTIES CHAMPIONSHIP.

Wiltshire Reaches the Semi-Final.

By its win over Dorset at Wimborne, on Thursday, Wiltshire finished its published list of championship matches. By its successful season, however, it won the honour of again playing in the semi-final at least, and that match began yesterday at Trowridge, as reported in another page. The four counties left in, as representatives of their respective "groups," to play in the semi-final and (in the case of two of them) the final matches are Wiltshire (southern group), Lincolnshire, Glamorganshire, and Notts II. Last season Staffordshire won the championship, but this year it is headed in its division by Notts 2nd. Wiltshire in two years has won thirteen out of sixteen matches entered upon in the Minor Counties Championship, and lost two only, one of the defeats being on the first innings. The following is the complete table for the Southern group :-

DORSET v. WILTS.

By invitation of the President of the Dorset County Cricket Club, the Earl of Shaftesbury, the two days' match between representatives of the home county and the neighbouring county of Wilts was played on Wednesday and Thursday on the fine ground which his lordship has had laid out at his Dorsetshire seat in St. Giles Park, near Cranborne. Lord Shaftesbury also generously entertained the players on both days. In reply to Dorset's score of 117 Wilts made 188. Upon the home county going in again they shaped very poorly before the bowling of Mitchell and Newman, and were dismissed for 69, leaving Wilts winners by an innings and two runs.

MINOR COUNTIES' CHAMPIONSHIP.

At the invitation of the President of the Dorset County Cricket Club (the Earl of Shaftesbury) the two days' match between representatives of the home county and the neighbouring county of Wilts was played on Wednesday and Thursday on the fine pitch—one of the finest to be found in the county—which his lordship has had laid out in St. Giles' Park. Lord Shaftesbury also generously entertained the players on both days, his lordship's hospitality being highly appreciated. The match resulted in favour of Wilts, who won by an innings and 2 runs. On Wednesday Dorset made 117, and in reply to this total the visitors compiled 183. Mitchell and Newman bowled so effectively on the Dorset men going in a second time, that the homesters were rattled out for 69, leaving Wilts winners as stated. Stacey, the Dorset professional, was unable to play, through suffering from an injury to his side. Scores:—

Notes: Wiltshire won this return match early in the afternoon of the second day by an innings and 2 runs. Wiltshire had also won the encounter between the two teams when they met at Trowbridge earlier in the month. For the winners, Mitchell took 11 wickets in the match for 73 runs. Taunton top-scored with 46, which contained 7 fours. For the losers, Udal top-scored with 23. The St Giles Park ground had been opened in August the year before and it was the first time a championship match had been played on it. The Earl of Shaftesbury was the President of the Dorset County Cricket Club.

[Missing: Both wicket-keepers; extras breakdown; fall of wickets; in Dorset first innings who held substitute catch; in Dorset second innings batting order, and boundaries in Udal's 23; in Wiltshire innings boundaries in Taunton's 46; time completed.]
