MINOR COUNTIES CHAMPIONSHIP.

DORSET v. DEVON.

Dorset met Devon in the Minor Counties championship at Sherborne yesterday. The home team batted first on a perfect wicket, and made 82. Russell bowled well. Devon took the field at 4.45 with Garratt and Conde-Williams, who had made 62 when Manser caught the former. Carroll filled the vacancy, and 50 runs were registered in 45 minutes. Hodges, who was missed in the slips when two, soon after hit the ball out of the field for 6, but was hit wicket 15. Two balls later Davis was caught behind the wicket, and a similar fate befell Bardlett when five. Carroll was then stumped, six wickets being down for 82. Light and Shelley then made a stand, and had scored, respectively, 35 and 20, despite bad light, when stumps were drawn. Scores:—

DORSET v. DEVON.

RAIN INTERRUPTS PLAY.

The weather was fine at Sherborne when the Dorset v. Devon match was resumed. Devon on Friday scored 222, and Devon had made 164 for the loss of six wickets, so that the Westerners' prospects were not rosy. The overnight not out, Light and Shelley, who had made a capital stand and were practically Devon's only hope, went in again and took the score to 214, when Shelley was clean bowled by Conde-Williams, the partnership having resulted in the addition of no fewer than 124 runs, which were crumpled at a time when they were badly needed. The improvement in the position greatly raised the Devonians' spirits. Russell and Wroford unfortunately failed to follow the advantage up, scoring but fourteen between them, and when Aston joined Light 43 runs were still required to give the Western county a lead. There was much depending on the Devic professional, but Light was bowled by Sewell, having compiled the splendid total of 97, and the innings closed for 261.

Devon went to the wickets for their second innings shortly after noon, Manser and Hardy batting. At eight Manser was taken behind the wicket by Davis off Russell, and two runs later the players were driven to the pavilion by the long-continued rain. There was a long wait, and as rain was still falling at 1.30 the match had to be abandoned. Scores:—

Club Cricket.

One of the largest individual innings of the present season is the 268 not out made by H. Harrison on the 2nd inst, for Broughton Wednesday against Swinton and Pendlebury on the Clifton ground. He hit four 6's and fifty-five 4's, and contributed his runs to a total of 363 for three wickets. Swinton and Pendlebury were all out for 101.

Lord Harris, playing for Band of Brothers v. Royal Artillery, at Woolwich on Friday and Saturday, scored 31 not out in his first innings and 76 in his second. He was the heaviest run-getter for either side, and had a great deal to do with the B. B.'s success by three wickets.

Some fast run-getting was recorded in Saturday's match between Dulwich and Charlton Park on the latter's ground. The Park, for whom William McCaulis made 55 not out, declared with eight wickets down for 217, and then saw Dulwich run up 231 for four in 95 minutes. S. J. Goodall, going in first, scored 129 and carried out his bat.

The Beddington C.C., whose Week concluded on Saturday last, has for several years been recognized as one of the strongest in Surrey. The date of its formation is uncertain, but it is believed that it was evolved from a club formed by the choristers of Beddington Church. At that time—about fifty years ago—the Rector of Beddington was Canon Bridges, a great enthusiast of the game, and the father of Mr. J. H. Bridges, who was for four years in the Winchester Eleven, and is the President of the Club. The early records of the Beddington C.C. have not been preserved, and the oldest score available seems to be of the match against West Kent at Chislehurst in August, 1863—a game, curiously enough, not mentioned by Mr. Philip Norman in his Annals of the West Kent C.C. It is not surprising to find that Beddington were defeated on that occasion, for among their opponents were several Normans and Lubbocks, Herbert Jenner and the Hon. Spencer Ponsonby. The home of the Beddington Club has always been Beddington Park, thanks to the generosity first of Canon Bridges and, afterwards, of his son, Mr. J. H. Bridges. It was there that, in 1876, was played a match which is often referred to by old players. It was against Marlborough Nomads, and Beddington stayed at the wickets the whole of the day, scoring 586 for nine wickets—a very large total in those times. Many well-known men appeared for Beddington that day, among them being F. H. Birley (68), the late H. R. Webbe (28), Vernon Royle (136), J. H. Bridges (51), W. Lindsay (116), H. A. Hodgson (45 not out), the present Rector and for several seasons captain of the club, and the Rev. R. E. Lee, whose lobbs frequently played havoc among opposing batsmen. Mr. Bridges led the side for a dozen years and Mr. Hodgson for an even longer period. The present captain is Mr. L. W. S. Rostron, another Old Wykehamist, who was a contemporary of Mr. H. D. G. Leveson-Gower. Undoubtedly the best-known cricketer the club has produced is Robert Henderson, who played for Surrey for many seasons and has been for more than thirty years a member of the Beddington Church Choir, but there have also been other players—such as the brothers Gilbert and Wilfred Reay—who needed only experience of first-class cricket to make a name for themselves.

A remarkable performance has been accomplished by J. C. Davies, a member of the Towyn School team. Playing against Aberystwyth, Davies dismissed the first four batsmen for a few runs, and later, in one over, took the remaining six wickets with consecutive balls, thus securing all ten in the innings. He is the son of Mr. Walter Davies, of London House, Lampeter, South Wales.

A match was played at South Croydon on Monday between the ten brothers Parris, whose ages range from 20 to 47, and the Brighton Road C.C. The match resulted in a win for the brothers by 54 runs. Percy Parris and Walter Parris obtained 40 of their runs in a quarter of an hour. This is the fourth annual match between the two sides, the Family having won all the three games which have been finished.
