Obituary.

MR. W. R. WISTER.

THE FATHER OF AMERICAN CRICKET.

It is with much regret that we announce the death, at Saunderson, Rhode Island, on August 21st, of Mr. William Rotch Wister, M.A. He was eighty-three years old and had been failing in health for several months. He was one of the promoters of the Philadelphia C.C. and played for the United States against Canada in 1859. His "Reminiscences of Cricket in Philadelphia before 1861," form a valuable contribution to the history of the game in America. Throughout his life he was a great enthusiast of the game, and even participated in it when the Germantown C.C. celebrated its fiftieth anniversary seven years ago.

Mr. Wister was a member of the old Germantown family of that name, being a son of William Wister and Sarah Logan Fisher. He was born on the Wister estate, Germantown, on December 7th, 1827. At the time of his death he was the second oldest member of the American Bar and the oldest alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen v. Players.

HIGHEST INDIVIDUAL INNINGS.

By scoring 223 at Scarborough this week, Philip Mead credited himself with the highest innings of his career and the largest ever played by a left-hander in a match between the Gentlemen and the Players. From the appended list it will be seen that 25 individual scores of 150 or more have now been obtained in matches between the sides:—

FOR THE GENTLEMEN.		FOR THE PLAYERS.
232* C. B. Fry, Lord's ...	1908	247 Abel (R.), Oval ...	1901
217 W. G. Grace, Brighton ...	1871	223 Mead (C. P.), Scarborough ...	1911

		151* Shrewsbury (A.), Oval ...	1892

* Signifies not out.

"W. G.'s" name appears above seven times, Abel's four times and Hayward's twice.

THE YORKSHIRE COUNTY C.C.

An interesting tabulated statement has just been issued by Mr. F. C. Toone, the secretary of the Yorkshire County Cricket Club, showing the gate receipts and attendances of the home matches during the present season. The highest attendance at a single match was, of course, at Sheffield, against Lancashire, on August Bank Holiday, on the occasion of Rhodes's benefit, when there were 33,738. At that match the gross gate amounted to £1,179, the nett gate being £1,002.

The next largest York-hire gate was at Dewsbury, against Northants, on June 22, the number of spectators being 13,885, the nett gate amounting to £321. The smallest gate was at Hull, against the All-Indian eleven, on July 10, the number present being 1,993, the gross gate being £106, which, after paying the grant of £100 to the Indians, left a balance of only £6.

The total attendance and gate for the home matches, which include fourteen championship matches, the matches with the Lancashire and Surrey second elevens, the trial match at Sheffield for the selection of the English team, and the match with the Indians at Hull, are as follows:—Total attendance, 145,443; gross gate, £4,950; percentage, £1,354; nett gate, £3,593.

The aggregates at the various grounds are interesting. Sheffield leads with a total attendance of 66,393; Bradford takes second place with 28,318; Leeds is third with 16,530, and Dewsbury fourth with 13,885. The above figures show a substantial increase on 1910, when the total attendance was 167,088, gross gate £3,549, and the nett gate £2,325.
