BEDS TAKE FIRST-INNINGS POINTS FROM HERTS AT ST. ALBANS.

FROM HEATS AT ST. ALBANS.

The first Minor Counties Championship match to be played at 3t. Albans since the war drew good crowds to Clarence Park, on Wednesday and Thursday, when Herts entertained Beds. The match was drawnfi but Beds, by reason of their first-innings lead of twelve, took three points. Beds won the toss and batted for five hours on Wednesday for 317. H. Davidson and Holdatock, when made 35, was libut to Roberts. B. V. Graham and Davidson carried the score to 149 when Davidson was bowled by Burton. He hit hard, but his limings of 86 was not altogether fauitless. Graham continued to bat well. The third wicket fell with 203 on the board, P. Burke (24) being libut to Burton. He hit hard, but his limings of 86 was not altogether fauitless. Graham continued to bat well. The third wicket fell with 203 on the board, P. Burke (24) being libut to Burton, and 27 runs later, C. N. Reed was smartly taken by Watson at mid-off. Marshall was quickly disposed of by a clever one-handed catch by Fordham in the slips at 253, and only three more runs were added when Graham, who had made 81, quickly played on to Roberts. The last four wickets added 61; F. Rawlins 27 not out and A. J. Worboys 16, both batting well.

Herts, left with forty minutes for batting on Wednesday, lost Hossier with the total at 16, the score at the close of play being 31 for 1. With only five runs added, Fordham, who had made 11 not out on Wednesday, was snapped behind the wicket, the batsman failing to get the benefit of a doubt. In the first hour's play, on Thursday, 68 runs were scored, and the third-wicket partnership carried the total to 109, when Titchmarsh (16), who had never been at his case, was caught at short forward leg. Watson, who had batted very steadily for two hours and made 78, was bowled off his pads by Holdstock, and when Cowley was acught and bowled by Whitbread, half the side was out for 161. The wicket at the bowling green end had crumbled, causing the bowling to cock up. Grimsdell and Crossman added 60. When Crossman an

STEVENAGE CRICKET WEEK.

A COUNTY MATCH.

HERTS. v LINCS.

In this summer of weather surprises, Setevenage opened their cricket week on Monday under the most havourable of aquaittes, and with brillants unshine to attract lovers of sport to the ground, and with two well-known minor counties as the opening attraction, there was little lacking to make a pleasant opening day. On Monday the game opened at 11.30, Heris, having won the toss. L. G. Hosier and C. B. Fordham started for the home county to the bowing of J. W. Smith and Hawley. Fordham opened the scoring with a shot to fine leg off Hawley for 4. In Hawley's second over Hosier scored a couple of after fours on the leg side. J. W. Smith relieved Wilson at 18, and the Wilson took over from 118, and the Wilson through skipe for 2, and also a 4, but the next ball was unlucky for him, for he was caught behind the wicket off Wilson with the total at 56 for 2, his own figure being 7. Hosier, just before, had been more fortunate, a ball from Wilson touching his bail and failing to dislodge it. Titchmarsh, one of the best known of the Herts County players, next appeared at the wicket, but he also was not allowed to get into the pace for big things, for at 4 he was splendidly taken by Bashforth off J. W. Smith of an interest of the wilson touching his bail and failing to dislodge it. Titchmarsh, one of the best known of the Herts County players, next appeared at the wicket, but he also was not allowed to get into the pace for big things, for at the player of the first own the form of the first own the dismissing Tomlinson after he had contributed 10. When this wicket went, the Lincolnshire score had reached 25. Bashforth then joined Frearson, and after batting for about ten minutes an appeal against bad light was upheld, play being stopped for ten minutes. The Lines score was standing at 42 for 2 when stumps were drawn at 6.45 for the day. Burton's two wickets had cost him sixteen runs and Meyer had none for sixteen at the end of the day's play.

THE SECOND DAY.

The Second Day.

The Second Day.

Burton started bowling from the pavilion end to Frearson on the opening of the second day's play. After careful play Bashforth turned Meyer to fine leg for 3 in his next over and repeated his success in his next stroke, which reached the boundary. Eventually Frearson was caught by Watson at short leg off Burton, the third wicket of Lines falling at 70. The rate of scoring was not at this period fast, Meyer and Burton bowling skifully and the batsment being cautious. Gillow signalised his arrival on the pitch by a knock through the slips off Burton for 4. Soon after Burton bowled Bashforth, the fourth wicket falling at 75. At about this time Roberts relieved Meyer at the town end. Gillow sent the figures up to a hundred with a 4 secured off Burton, but in his second over Roberts get Gillow caught in the long field by Evans. The latter made a brilliant run of some yards and secured the catch running. Evans relieved Burton at the pavilion end. The first hour's play had produced 60 runs. Fane-Smith put up a catch just out of Meyer's reach (off Roberts) but at the other end he was out lbw to Evans, the sixth wicket falling at 119. Shaw was caught by Fordham when the figures were 120 for 7. Wilson directly after was caught by Koberts in attempting to hit Roberts, and the eighth wicket had gone for 122. Mack was the next to go, being caught behind his wicket had gone for 122. Mack was the next to go, being caught behind his wicket off Roberts at 124 for 9. When his individual score stood at 3 Hawley was bowled by Roberts. With Smith not out 2 and the extras 26, Lineolnshire's first innings was over at 12.35, having lasted 2 hours 20 minutes, the score being 128.

Roberts and Evans were both playing for the county for the first time. This was their hoteworthy analysis; Roberts, S for 13; Evans, 1 for 12. Roberts break seemed to puzzle the batsment a good deal.

Lincolnshire, following on, opened their second innings with Frearson and Bashforth to the bowling of Meyer and Burton.

was their noteworthy analysis; Roberts' break seemed to puzzle the batsment a good deal.

Lincolnshire, following on, opened their second innings with Frearson and Bashforth to the bowling of Meyer and Burton. Bashforth survived an appeal behind the wicket off Meyer's fifth ball and later punished the same bowler for three fours and a three in one over—a very expensive over for Meyer. The score advanced on to 50 and then Roberts relieved Meyer at the town end. Bashforth met his fate at 80, being caught by Watson off Burton. The Rev. H. Mack then accompanied Frearson at the wicket, the score being advanced to 192 when Mack was caught by Cowley in attempting to hit Burton. Frearson was missed by Watson off Burton's bowling when his score stood at 45. Meyer now relieved Burton at the pavilion end. In Meyer's first over from this end Frearson was missed being stumped by Crossman, and, as a result, he went on to make, as it proved, the highest score of the day. Reid, at the town end, was persistent with his slow bowling, having set his field mostly on the boundary. Frearson reached his half-century with a boundary hit off Reid. It had taken him about 75 minutes to compile. At this time Meyer secured his first wicket of the match, when Tomlinson was caught by Burton. The third wicket fell at 12. At this period Gillow got Meyer away for a nice leg shot for 4. Evans now entered on at the town end to relieve Reid, and in attempting a short run Gillow was splendidly thrown out by Evans, Frearson having hit the ball to cover point, which was well returned to the wicket. Burton relieved Meyer at the pavillon end and Roberts exchanged with Evans at the other. Hallam was bowled by Roberts, the latter's score being 15. When the board figures had reached 200, J. W. Smith was Caught at mid-on off Roberts. At 203 Wilson, the captain, had his middle stump bowled by Burton. Frearson was batting well, but could not get anyone to stay with him. At 209 Shaw was bowled by Burton. His 98 piled in two and three quarter hours. Hawley was Crossman was bowled by Wilson without scoring, and Hosier and Evans took the score to 13, Evans making the winning hit. Herts were thus the winners by nine wickets. nine wickets.

Watson's low figure was the Stevenage surprise, but this resulted from his hitting over the ball and to the wicket-keeper's good catch. The bowling analysis showed that Roberts, of Harpenden, who was playing for the county for the first time, had done excellently. His figures were 5 for 13 and 3 for 42. Evans, the Royston new County man, took 1 wicket for 12 in Lincolnshire's first innings. Scores.—

LETCHWORTH v R.A.F. (HENLOW).

On a wet wicket at Letchworth on Wednesday last week, the home side secured first innings lead of 19. Batting first, Letchworth obtained 74, for which O. Webb (16 not out), E. Albon (10) and G. Simmons (23) were mainly responsible. Bates was the most successful bowler for the visitors, taking four wickets for 23 zuns.

the visitors, taking four wickets for 23 xus.

The Service side fared badly after the tea interval and were disposed of for the low score of 55. Webb bowled exceedingly well, and claimed seven victims for 32 xuns. The possibilities of quick rungetting, even on a bowler's wicket, were demonstrated when each side had halfan-hour's batting after the first innings; Letchworth obtained 51 for the loss of Tookey's wicket, while in the next half hour the visitors averaged nearly three runs a minute in obtaining 34 for the loss of five wickets.

R.A.F. (HALTON) "A" v R.A.F. (HEN-LOW) "A."

The Henlow second team added to their long list of successive wins by soundly beating the School of Technical Training "A" team at Halton on Thursday last week. The visitors had first use of the crease and put together 162, Sgt. Smith (49) and L/A/C Craig (40) both hatting attractively. Against the bowling of Leaman and Hamer the home side made a poor reaponse, being all out for 62. Leaman again bowled splendidly and returned an analysis of six wickets for a triffe over four runs each. Gd'ng in again, the home side did better, 48 runs being obtained for the loss of four wickets, of which Sgt Smith claimed 3.

Scores.—R.A.F. (Henlow) "A" 162.
R.A.F. (Halton) "A" 52 and 48 for 4 wickets.

BROOKERS v SHEFFORD WEDNES-

DAY.

Brookers (Hitchin) suffered a heavy deteat on Wednesday last week at the hands of Shefford Wednesday. Brookers could do nothing with the bowling of H. Bryant (3 for 7) and W. Bugg (4 for 15), but Shefford were able to declare with ninety for 4 wickets, thanks to the good batting of Sgt. Falkes (47 not out). Scores.—Brookers 23, Shefford 90 for 4 wickets.

LUTON HOO v OFFLEY.

LUTON HOO v OFFLEY.

Offley visited Luton Hoo on Saturday and were defeated by 39 runs.
The Hoo batted first and had lost two wickets for 9 runs, but by careful play J. M. Lyon succeeded in hitting up 25, the next highest contributors being Hackley (19), Jeffrey (8) and Crick (7), the last wicket falling with the total at 59, five men having tailed to score. Harley (4 for 8), Barker (3 for 20) and Wilcox (3 for 26) shared the wickets for Offley.

Offley, on going in to bat, fared disastrously, six wickets being down for 5 runs, the light at this time being very bad. Wilcox made the best of things and was not out with eleven to his credit out of a total of 20, seven men failing to score. Hackley (6 for 10) and Jefferey (3 for 9) claimed the wickets.

Offley, on batting a second time, put up better show and had scored 58 for the loss of 9 wickets when time was called, Wilcox again being to the fore with 26 not out.

Score.—Luton Hoo 59, Offley 20 and 53 for 9 wickets.

Holwell Second XI 20 and 43, Offley Second XI 27 and 3 for 1.

LETCHWORTH v STEVENAGE.

LETCHWORTH v STEVENAGE.

This match between two keen rivals was played at Letchworth Corner on Saturday. The home side batted first and opened very badly, five wickets falling for 18 only. Dennis and Diss, however, made a stand, and then Dennis and Lockyer. But the captain, well set, hurt his leg and had to have a runner, with the result that he was at once run out; Lockyer continued to play well and helped the score to 71.

Without Dennis to bowl, Letchworth were handicapped against such a batting side, but Lockyer and Redhouse bowled wplendidly and despite two or three easy chances going begging and the fact that only four wickets were down for 35, the total reached twelve short of the home side's moderate score

An unusual incident marked the innings. Clarkson was given out lbw, but Dennis, thinking that he had played the ball, called him back. This sporting spirit, however, did not benefit that sparkling batter, for he was finely run out immediately after. Redhouse took four wickets for 23 and Lockyer four for 28.

THREE COUNTIES MENTAL HOSPI-TAL v ROYSTON.

THREE COUNTIES MENTAL HOSPITAL v ROYSTON.

Royston were the visitors to the Mental Hospital on Saturday, and a keenly fought game, with a remarkable finish, resulted.

Batting first, the visitors compiled 143, due almost entirely to Evans and Bowskill. These batsmen played excellent cricket, and scored all but 30 runs of the total between them.

The commencement of the home innings was sensational, five wickets falling for only 15 runs, and it was not till Page joined Buckley that the rot was stopped. These two batted carefully, and took the score steadily along but with only three wickets to fall 60 runs were still required. However, P. Robinson and Champion, a recent recruit to the Hospital side, and both young players, defended bravely, and added 46 runs before the latter was caught for 29. Robinson continued to bat confidently, and Axam eventually made the winning hit, the final result being a win for the Hospital by 8 runs.

Evans, of Royston, followed, up his innings of 60 with some brilliant fielding and bowling, his five wickets being secured at a cost of 42 runs.

Buckley (4 for 40) and Champion (3 for 9) were the most successful bowlers for the home side.

KIMPTON v MR. C. SMITH'S XI.

The numerous company who were present at the second of the games between Kimpton and a team captained by Mr. C. Smith, of which the majority were former Club members, were rewarded with an exciting finish, the club winning by the narrow margin of one run.

Batting first, the older members made a much better show than they did the previous week, scoring 32. Of these Hawkes (8), Smith (5), Ward (4) and "Extras" 5 were the best scorers. Hall secured 4 for 11 and Gatward 4 for 13. The Club's team appeared to be winning easily, when, with four wickets in hand, they only required two runs to win. At this stage Gatward (8) was run out an amidst excitement the remainder could only just manage to secure the necessary runs to win. Pruden (11, all singles) was top scorer Adams, with 4 for 8, was the most successful bowler.

HARPENDEN LEGION v KIMPTON.

HARPENDEN LEGION V KIMPTON.

Visiting Harpenden on Saturday. Kimpton won an interesting game by 17 runs. Losing three wickets for the same number of runs, Kimpton did well to total 55, useful scores being made by Durrant (9), Catling (9), Hale (11) and Gatward (14). At one stage of the homestors' innings, when Riches and Munt were together, it appeared likely that they would make a good finish, but Hale's bowling brought the innings to an abrupt conclusion and obtained the last four of his wickets without conceding a run. For Kimpton, Hale took 5 for 2, Gatward 3 for 16, Shaw 1 for 11 and Durrant 1 for 4.

Scores .- Kimpton 55, Harpenden Legion

JACK DURSTON AT THE AERODROME.

Saturday's game at the Aerodrome proved a very interesting and popular event, some 400 spectators witnessing the best game of the senson on the Depot ground, where a splendid cricket wicket had been prepared.

The visitors, under the captaincy of H. G. W. Cox, of Leighton Buzzard, included Jack Durston (Middlesex), G. Hart (Lord's Ground Staff), H. Cuttle (Dulwich College coach), G. Sheercroft (Richmond Town) and C. F. Barrow, Barney Bailey and "Bandy" Howse (Ealing Dean), while the home side included F/Lt. E. A. Fawcus and F/Lt. E. N. D. Worsley (Halton and Bucks. County C.C.). Twelve aside was played.

An hour and a half's play before the luncheon interval saw the home side in an inspired mood. Durston and Walker opened to the bowling of Bates and Jennings, both of whom kept an irreproachable length. In the first over Durston was smartly stumped by F/O Croome off Bates, while in his next over Bates clean bowled Walker with only three runs on the board. Jennings met with success when Pickard put his legs in front of a straight one, and Hart had his off stump disturbed with a real fizzer from the same bowler. The luncheon interval arrived with the score 20 for 6 wickets.

On the resumption Bailey batted confidently, but after collecting 30 played on to Bates. Howse and Cuttle both reached double figures, but the innings closed for 89. Bates and Jennings bowled throughout and returned 6 for 52 and 4 for 35 respectively: a welcome feature was the very keen and accurate fielding of the Service side.

Dürston and Sheercroft had charge of the bowling when F/O Croome and Jennings opened the Depot imnings, and the Middlesex fast bowler was most unfortunate to have four catches dropped in the slips off his first three overs. P/O Croome did not greatly benefit from his infertions score being passed with three wickets in hand. Meanwhile Durston had proved too much for most of the home batsmen, and claimed five victims, all clean bowfed, for 41 runs.

With the game beginner in Motoring."

It was only to be expected that some recognition would be made of the prowess of young Walby, who, as mentioned in these columns recently, made 104 runs against Southill School in the School. As Section of the East Beds Lengue. At the League Committee meeting it was decided to present the promising youngster with a medal as a souvenir of the occasion. Walby, who plays for Biggleswade Boya' Council School, has also received a hat from a London newspaper in recognition of this feat. As the bat is autographed by no less a "hero" than Jack Hobbs, that in itself is something Walby will always be proud of. I am glad the League has taken signal notice of the performance. A youngsters of such promise deserves every possible encouragement.

Stevenage Cricket Festival was previded with an interesting opening on Monday and Tuesday, when the Herts V. Lines. Minor Counties match was played. Hertfordshire won the match by nine wickets, their opening innings being a thrilling display of batting. The only disappointment of the innings from a purely Stevenage point of view, was the fact that Watson's stay at the crease was such a short one. The Herts total went to 343 and Lines replied with 128. Lines then made 228 and Herts put up 13 for 1 wicket and thus won the two-day match with nine wickets in hand. The outstanding bowling of the day was that of Roberts, wilo sent off five of the Lincolnshire men for thirteen runs in the first innings.

COUNTY CRICKET AT STEVENAGE.

HERTS ENTERTAIN LINCOLNSHIRE.

SPLENDID WIN FOR HOME COUNTY.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE.)

The wicket at Stevenage was in perfect condition on Monday for the first day of the Minor Counties Championship match between Hertfordshire and Lincolnshire. This was the first time the teams had met aince before the war, and the very first occasion on which Lincolnshire had visited Stevenage.

occasion on which Lincolnshire had visited Stevenage.

The Herifordshire captain, Mr. L. J. Reid, beat Major Wilson, the Lincolnshire scipper, at the toss, and of course decided to bat, sending in L. G. Hosiar, of St. Albans, who was making his re-appearance for the county after an interval of many years, and C. B. Fordham, a promising young batsman, whose home is at Puckeridge, to open the innings. The umpires were R. Mands and A. Bect.

The opening pair began moderately to the bowling of Hawley and Wilson. After they had put on 18 in the first 20 minutes, including three 4's, Wilson took himself off in favour of J. W. Smith, and then the next over relieved Hawley at the top end, four byes coming from his first ball. Forty-one was on the board as a result of thirty-five minutes' play, when Smith bowled Fordham off his legs, the ball taking his off stump. Fordham's 17 included three 4's. Watson, the Stevenage batsman, joined Hosier, and showed a tendency to "nibble" at Wilson's off balls. He took a single and then a two and a four through slips off consecutive balls, but was caught at the wicket off the next ball in attempting a similar shot. Two wickets were down for 56.

Titchmarsh, the famous Herts and M.C.C. batsman, received an ovation when he left to join Hosier. He did not remain very long, however, for at 63 he fell to a capital eatch off a very hard drive to square log, Bashford knocking the ball up and eatching it at the second attempt. After Cowley had joined Hosier, the Rev. Mack took the ball in place of Wilson. An hour's batting yielded 64 runs, and at this total Hosier skied a ball from Smith to cover-point, where he was easily taken by Frearson. His 32 included five 4's. Meyer, the Horts and Cambridge University cricketer, was the next batsman in, and the score momited ateadily in the next 20 minutes to 87, st which total Hawley relieved Sanish with the ball. Five minutes later the 100 went up on the board principally as a result of some fine forcing strokes by Meyer, who began to open his shoul

LUNCHEON INTERVAL.

At the luncheon interval after a partner-ship which had realised 67 in 40 minutes, Cowley had scored 31 and Meyer 35. The scoreboard showed the total at 131 for 4 wicketa scoreboard showed the total at 131 for 4 wickets.

The first over after lunch from Wilson at the top and was a maiden. Smith relieved Frearson at the other end, and Meyer took a 4 off him. Fifteen minutes after the resumption Meyer completed his half century with a 4 off Smith, and the next ball he lifted for the first 6 of the match. At 168 Wilson missed a chance at mid-off from Cowley off Smith's bowling. The Lincolashire captain, however, had his revenge, for he get Meyer caught on the edge of the boundary off the first ball of his next over, Tomlinson taking a huge drive, which was almost a 6, with one hand. Meyer took 70 minutes to make his runs, and his 60 included a 6 and seven 4's. Five wickets were down for 168, a most valuable partnership having realised 104 runs. Shortly after being joined by Crossman, Cowley completed his individual 50. After making only two runs, Crossman was bowled by Wilson, six wickets being down for 182.

After being joined by Reid, the Hertfordshire skipper, Cowley took a 6 with a beautiful on-drive from Smith, but immediately afterwards he was caught off the same bowler by Fane-Smith at longon, seven wickets being down for 188. Cowley's 61 included a 6 and seven 4's, and he was batting ninety minutes. The Rev. Mack relieved Wilson at 196. With a four past cover-point off Mack, Reid sent up the 200, after the innings had lasted within two or three minutes of three hours. The rate of scoring, which had slackened, began to increase again, ten runs coming in four minutes, the Hertfordshire captain getting one or two pretty shots on the off side. Hawley took the ball in place of Smith at 212. A noticeable feature of the Lincolnshire side's performance in the field was the capital fielding of Frearson. He showed a wonderful turn of speed, and picking up on the run, was responsible for some very quick and securate returns. At 240 Hallam relieved Mack with the ball, and Reid pulled his first and third deliveries to the rails. Both batsmen continued to score freely, and at 288 Frearson took the ball from Hallam, Burton treating himself to a 4 off the first delivery. Shortly afterwards, Reid completed his 50, and Hallam relieved Hawley with the ball at the bottom end. At 278 Hallam failed to hold a sharp return from Reid. The batsmen scemed to be well set, and another bowling change took place, Wilson going on for Frearson.

HERTS CAPTAIN'S FINE INNINGS.

The tea interval was taken with the score at 295 for seven wickets, Reid and score at 295 for seven wickets, Reid and Burton having been together for an hour and a half, during which time their partnership had realised 107 runs. Smith took the ball in favour of Hallam on the resumption, and the 300 went up in the first over. Wilson soon relieved Smith at the pavilion ond, and Frearson took over at the top end. Wilson's fourth ball bowled the Hertfordshire captain, who had batted two hours for his 82, which included eleven 4's. The partnership of one hour and 50 minutes between himself and Burton had realised 129 runs. The score read 317 for eight wickets. Smith relieved Frearson at the top end. At 318 Burton had realised 129 runs. The score read 317 for eight wickets. Smith relieved Frearson at the top end. At 318 Burton was bowled in attempting a big hit off Wilson, having played a most useful innings of 43, which took him two hours to make.

The last wicket pair, Evans and Roberts, were both under 18 yours of are and hours to make.

The last wicket pair, Evans and Roberts, were both under 18 years of age, and both wore playing their first game for the county. Evans showed very promising form with the bat. The innings closed when Roberts was taken behind the wicket off Wilson, Hertfordshire having been at the wicket four hours and three-quarters for 346 runs, not a bad rate of scoring. Wilson took six wickets for 69 runs, and Smith four for 98.

Tombinson and Hallam opened the visitors' innings to the bowling of Meyer and Burton, but after getting the latter away for a four past deep cover, Hallam was bowled by the Herts professional with the score at 9.

Frearson followed in, but Burton was bowling extremely well, and with the score at 25 he scattered Tomlinson's wicket. Half an hour before the time for drawing stumps, the batsmen appealed successfully against the light, but the players were only in the pavilion for fifteen minutes, and then Frearson and Bashforth played out time.

ham to take at cover-point. Wilson was caught in a similar manner at 122, and two runs later Mack was taken behind the wicket off the same youthful bowler, who seemed to be puzzling the batsmen with his breaks. The last wicket fell to Roberts after the innings had lasted 140 minutes for 128 runs. Lincolnshire followed on with arrears of 218 runs. Roberts secured five wickets for 13 runs, a splendid analysis. He bowled 9 overs, three of which were maidens. Burton took four wickets for 44 runs, Evans one for 12, and Meyer none for 33.

The visitors' second finnings opened with Bashforth and Frearson to the bowling of Meyer and Burton. The score mounted slowly to 20, after which it increased in pace, and no less than 16 runs came off one over from Meyer. Roberts relieved Meyer at the top end at 48, and the half century went up in 25 minutes. After a partner-ship lasting half an hour Bashforth cocked up a balf from Burton in casy fashion to Watson at short leg, and one wicket was down for 60 runs. The luncheon interval was taken at this point, after which Mack joined Frearson, the bowling being in the hands of Barton and Meyer. The score mounted as 80 in 12 minutes, at which point Roberts took the ball from Meyer. Mack took the first 6 registered for the visitors with a big drive over the bowler's head from Roberts. In all, ten runs came from this over, and the 100 went up 24 minutes after the resumption, after the innings had lasted a minute or two short of the hour.

FREARSON IN FORM.

FREARSON IN FORM.

FREARSON IN FORM.

The second wicket fell at 102, Mack putting up a catch to Cowley at mid-on off Burton. Frearson was batting in very easy style, but when he had scored 45, he gave a sharp chance to Watson at square key, which was not accepted. At 118 Meyer, who had up to this point had no success, went on, and during his first over Frearson drove him round to square key, but the ball, which would probably have gone to the boundary, was unantentionally stopped by the umpire, and the over was a maiden. Reid, the Herts captain, took the ball in place of Roberts, and in his first over Frearson completed his half-century after batting an hour and twenty minutes. In his following over Meyer took his first wicket in the match, Burton taking a catch from Tomlinson on the key side. The three wickets had produced the fine total of 125 runs. Reid did not remain on for many overs, and he was relieved at the top end by Eyans. Gillow remsined with Frearson for 20 minutes, the partnership producing 40 runs before the former was run out, the victim of a smart return by Evans at cover point. Four wickets were down for 165 runs. Burton relieved Meyer whon Hallam went in to join Frearson. Both batsmen treated Roberts, who had relieved Evans, with great respect, and at 192 he bowled Hallam, who had con-when Hallam went in to join Frearson. Both batsmen treated Roberts, who had relieved Evans, with great respect, and at 192 he bowled Hallam, who had contributed 15 to the total.

The 200 went up after the visitors had been batting two hours, and ten minutes, and before the total had been increased Smith was caught by Meyer off Roberts for an individual score of 6. Wilson, who joined Frearson, was troubled by Burton, and succembed without scoring. Seven wickets were down for 203 runs. Shaw, who followed in, was also a short liver, playing one of Burton's on to his wicket with the total at 209. The Hertfordshire total was passed after the visitors had batted two hours and a half. With the score at 227, when he was within two of his century, Frearson chopped a ball from Burton into the hands of Watson at slip. He had taken two hours and forty minutes to make his score, which included twelve 4's. The innings closed for 228, Hawley being out liby to Roborts. Hertfordshire were thus left to make 11 to win. Burton took five wickets for 74 runs, Roberts three for 42, Meyer 1 for 54, Reid tame for 20, and Evans none for 13.

Crossman and Evans opened Hertfordshire's second venture to the bowling of Wilson and Smith. Evans opened the scoring with a four off Smith through the slips. Crossman was bowied by Wilson with the score at 4, and Hosier went in. Evans took another a off Smith, this time round to leg, and he followed with a single in the same over. The same player made the winning stroke a minute later from Wilson. Hertfordshire thus won the match by 9 wickets. Wilson's one wicket cost him four runs.

COUNTY ORICKET AT CHESHUNT.

HERTS V. CAMBRIDGESHIRE. Good Win for Herts.

Good Win for Herts.

For the benefit of the Cheshunt groundsman, Pritchard, this minor counties game was played at the Cheshunt Recreation ground on Wednesday, and yesterday (Thursday). The home team won the toss and started with Fordham and Hozier, Colville and Williams taking up the attack. The first half hour's batting only produced 20 runs (well behind the clock). With the half century Titchmarsh who had batted 30 minutes for 17 runs, was, caught from a "skyer" by Colville. The first 50 took over an hour to secure, the slowness of the scoring being accounted for by the state of the wicket and the outfield. At 79 Fordham, who had played in a correct and faultless manner for 90 minutes for his score of 35, was smartly taken at the wicket. The score was gradually taken to 132 for six, thanks to the fine partnership of Grimsdell and Crossman, when rain stopped play. At five o clock, however, the rain cleared. The innings, which had lasted 44 hours, closed for 215.

The visitors bowling analysis was: Leek, four for 43; P. Williams, two for 37; V. Colville, one for 47; F. Norton, one for 23; Ridgeon, one for 7; and P.s. Morton, one for 45. Colville had seven maiden overs.

COUNTY CRICKET AT CHESHUNT.

Herts v. Cambridgeshire.

For the benefit of the Cheshunt groundsman, Pritchard, this minor counties game was played at the Cheshunt Recreation Ground on Wednesday and yeaterday (Thorsday). The home team won the toss and latarted with Fordham and Hozier, Colville and Williams taking up the attack. There was no life in the pitch, and the ball at times got up very evikewardly. With the score at 9, Hozier was bowled by Colville. Watson came in, and after ecoring three singles, was bowled by Williams. Titchmarsh followed, and got off the mark with a single. The first helf-hour's batting only produced 20 runs (well behind the clock). With the half-century, Titchmarsh, who had batted 30 minutes for 17 runs, was caught out with a "skyer" by Colville, boyled Ridgeon. The first 50 took over an hour to secure, the alcomess of the scoring being accounted for by the state of the wicket, and the out-fielding. At 60, there was a further change in the bowling. Leek and Ridgeon (the Cambridgeshire skipper) taking up the attack. At 79, Fordham, who had played in a correct and faultless manner for 90 minutes for his score of 35, was smartly taken at the wickets. At 29, Cowley was caught by Carnegie-Brown, of Leek's first over, and five runs later Meyer was caught off a huge hit in the long field. The score was gradually taken to 122 for 6, phanks to the fine partnership of Grimdell and Grossman, when rain stopped play. At 50 clock, however, the rain cleared, and at 166, Grossman was caught off a rising ball for a splendidly played 34. L. J. Reid then partnered Grimsdell, and the two put sa 44 for the 8th wicker, when Grimsdell, whe had played a wery due innings, was out to a catch in the long field. The Herts tail had been "wuggins," and atter Roberts' had been caught for 2, the innings, which had lasted 4½ hours, closed-for 215.

The visitors' bowling analysts was:—Leek, 4 for 43; P. Williams, 2 for 37; V. Colville, 1 for 47; F. Morton, 1 for 45. Colville had soven maiden overs. Spores:— For the benefit of the Cheshunt groundsman

SCHOOLBOY CRICKET.

Enfield Boys Again Beat Cheshunt Boys.

The annual encounter between teams representative of Cheshunt Elementary Schoolboys and Enfield Elementary Schoolboys, for the landsome silver shield presented by the Cheshunt and Enfield Cricket Clubs, took place on Friday afternoon at the Cheshunt Recreation Ground before a good attendance. match is eagerly looked forward to by the lads, and though the Enfield youngsters have so far won on every occasion, including Friday's event, Cheshunt still have hopes of "retrieving the ashes." The Cheshunt side showed a marked improvement on last year's performance, and, though they were defeated, they were not disgraced. It must be remembered also that the Enfield side has a bigger area from which to draw likely recruits.

Friday's game was keenly contested, and, though neither side played brilliantly, it was abundantly evident that each side was enthusiastic. Cheshunt won the toss, and the skipper, with Cair-like tactics, elected that the visitors should but first on a perfect wicket. Nicholls was early howled for a "duck," but Fay, Daines, and Richbell (the latter with the highest score of the game—22) soon put the Enfield lads in a fayourable position, and, although Richardson bowled well for the Cheshunt side, he was not well backed up in the fielding. Several catches were missed, especially in the slips, though, on the other hand, the Enfield boys did not take all the opportunities for scoring which came their way. Enfield registered 89, to which Cheshunt replied with 66. Richardson being top sawyer for the home side, with 11. Richardson took 5 wickets for 27 runs. In the second innings, Enheld were easily the superior eleven, securing 56 for 8 wickets, to which Cheshunt could only reply with 13, all out. Scores:—

Aldenham escaped with a draw when they entertained Morgan Greeffell and Co. in a twelve-a-side game. The visitors ran up a score of 172, W. W. Hill-Wood (59) and P. HERTS COUNTY CRICKET WEEK. RAIN ROBS DORSET OF PROBABLE VICTORY.

C. H. Titchmarsh's Fine Feat.

This week the Herts County Club are holding their annual Cricket Week on the West Herts Sports ground, Cassio-road, the principal matches arranged being two Minor Counties' Competition games—with Dorset and Buckinghamshire; the closing game of the week being between Gentlemen of Herts and the West Herts Club. Last year was the Jubilee of the County Club, and it was then hoped that the event might be celebrated very fittingly by the Club winning the Minor Counties Championship. After a good season they finished fourth from the top of the table, a feat which showed a further gradual rate of improvement, in that in the previous two years they had ended up fifth and sixth respectively, as com-up fifth and sixth respectively, as compared with the tenth position in 1922.

In pared with the tenth position in 1922.

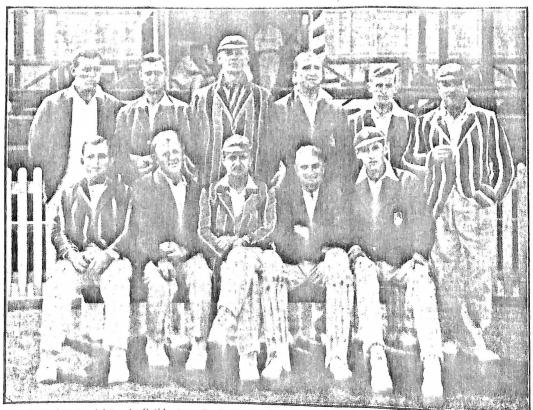

Already this season they had won three full victories, but in two unfinished matches they had been led by opponents on the first innings, so that the concluding championship games to be played left very little margin for any possible set-backs. The Club had been habled been hablily of R. J. O. Meyer, the brilliant Cambridge Blue and Haileybury College batsman and bowler, to take part in any of "the Week" matches. Mr. Meyer is shortly going to India to enter into the industry of cotton planting. He was sally missed in the bowling department on the opening day at Watford, when Dorset provided the opposition,

There had been a slight fall of rain when wickets should have been pitched on Monday, and for a time the outlook appeared very gloomy. However, the sun came out, and Dorset, having won the toss, chose first knock on a wicket that proved very easy throughout the day. The umpires were Carlin and Wainwright.

DORSET'S OPENING KNOCK.

R. M. Chadwick and Knight opened the Dorset innings at 11.45 to the bowling of Hylton-Stewart and Fordham, Runs came steadily, mostly from singles, and at the end of the first quarter of an hour's play 22 runs had been scored. At 12.10, with the score at 25, Burton went on at the town end for Fordham, and Kright for the first handward.

gave his first chance, Roberts failing to hold a fairly easy catch at long-off. The Herts fielding was not of the best, and many runs might have been saved by a little smarter work. At 235 Cuthbertson went on for Hylton-Stewart, and nearly had Knight caught at short slip by Reid off his second ball. His first over was a maiden—the first since lunch. With the total at 237, Busk was out libu to Roberts, after having made a bright 34. Knight was then 118. Walby was out first ball to a catch by Titchmarsh off Roberts, with the total at 237. Cuthbertson was bowling well, and eventually secured Knight's wicket with a ball that kept low. Anight had been at the wicket for just under three hours for his score of 133 out of a total of 235, which included ten fours and five threes. F. J. Cummins was caught by Cowley off Cuthbertson without annother run being added. Cuthbertson met with further success in the same over, clean bowling C. J. Jowett without any addition to the score. A. M. Harrison, who batted with one hand, joined Jones. With the total at 276 for eight, Burton relieved Roberts. Despite the fact that he could only use his right arm—the left being disabled—Harrison made some delightful shots, including boundary hits. The innings, which had lasted about 34 hours, closed for 289, and the tea interval was then taken. Cuthbertson had the best bowling average with balls at a fair pace, ing average with five for 29. He had bowled good length balls at a fair pace, and had been difficult to play.

THE HERTS REPLY.

Herts opened their account with C. B. Fordbam and F. Burton opposed to the attack of Busk and Harrison. Only four runs were on the board when Burton was clean bowled by Harrison without having scored. Only five runs had been added when Fordbam was aught at the wicket off Harrison, the outgoing batsman having scored six out of a total of nine for two wickets. Hosler's stay was short, as he fell to a catch by Walby off a fast delivery from Busk, without a run being added. Much appeared to depend upon the association of C. H. Titchmarsh and R. B. Cowley. The former scon began to gather runs, chiefly by delightful leg strokes. With the total at 30 Cummins relieved Busk, but runs came steadily, and the 56 went up in the hour. At 57 Moberly relieved Cummins, and was promptly sent to the boundary by Cowley. With his score at 22, Titchmarsh drove a hot one to mid-on, but the fielder could not hold it. Busk came on again at 79, and immediately brought about the dismissal of Cowley, who was caught by Elderton. The outgoing batsman had made 42, including six fours. The partnership had yielded 70 runs in sixty-five minutes. With the total at 84 Crossman was clean bowled by Harrison, without having scored, and Titchmarsh was joined by Grimsdell, who was unfortunately run out when he had scored seven, and the total was 104. Cuthbertson was Titchmarsh's noxt partner, and he soon opened his shoulders to lift Harrison clean out of the ground. When stumps were drawn for the day, Titchmarsh was not out 41 and Cuthbertson not out 12, the Herts total then being 120 for the loss of six wickets.

Prospects of a resumption of the game at 11 a.m. on the second day were rendered hopeless by a heavy fall of rain, following considerable rain during the night. At 11.39, the downpour having ceased, an inspection of the wicket resulted in the roller being applied and a commercement made at 11.40. Overnight Herts were 169 behind with four wickets to fall, the not outs being Titchmarsh (41) and Cuthberston (12). They required 70 to save the fo

Hylton-Stewart joined Reid, but the latter was caught at square leg with only 8 runs added. The outgoing batsman had made 19. Herts still required 21 to save the follow on when Roberts, the last batsman, went in. After seven runs had been added, Roberts was clean bowled by Busk, and the Herts innings closed at 12.45 with the total at 176. leaving them 113 behind on the first innings.

Herts, therefore, had to follow on, and C. B. Fordham and Burton, at 1 o'cleek, again opened their account to the bowling of Busk and Harrison. With 18 on the board, Burton was bowled by Busk for five, and before lunch Hosier was out, the score then being 25 for two wickets.

After lunch, Titchmarsh became associated with Fordham. The latter, when 22, made a hot return to Harrison, who stopped the feel high over his head, but could not hold it. When 14, Titchmarsh survived an appeal for lbw. Runs came at a fair pace, and with the total at 61, Moberley displaced Busk. When Titchmarsh had made 24 in this innings it brought his total to 700 runs for his county in Minor County matches this season, and in the next over Fordham reached his 50 after having batted 105 minutes. With the total at 117, C. B. Fordham was caught behind the wicket after having made a masterly 61. The partnership, which had lasted an hour and forty minutes, had yielded 88 runs. When 47 Titchmarsh was struck on the right hand by a fast ball from Busk, but resumed and sent the next ball to the boundary, reaching his 50 in an hour and 42 minutes. He was bowled in the next over by Harrison, after adding another single. The total was then 197 for four. Crossman and Cowley hit hard and put on 65 between them before the former got his leg in front of a ball from Harrison. The total was then 199, with Cowley not out 35. Cuthbertson joined Cowley, and with the total at 107, Horts being then 84 on, the tea interval was taken.

With the total at 202, Cowley was run out after having made 43. A Grimsdell

A Grimsdell helped to take the score to 213 before being stumped, and when Cuthbertson was caught the Herts total was.215 for eight. Reid fell to a brilliant low catch behind the wicket, with only two runs added. The innings closed for 221, leaving Dorset 109 to get to win in an hour and a balf.

set 109 to get to win in an hour and a bal?.

With 31 on the board Dorset last Chadwick, who had made eleven. At 6 o'clock a sharp fall of rain occurred, and Bower was caught by Hosier off Roberts with the total at 41. The players were then called off. They resumed in ten minutes, but rain fell again, and caused another cessation. There was no further play, and the game ended in a draw. Dorset gaining points for their fiest innings lead.

Bucks' Luck.

WINNING TOSS GIVES THEM BIG ADVANTAGE.

Franklin's Successes.

Delightful weather conditions prevailed when Herts had to take first knock in their match with Buckinghamshire. The wicket had dried rapidly after the heavy rain that fell during the night, but was obviously tricky. For this game Herts had the assistance of R. J. O. Meyer, and this was his last match with the County before his departure to India. Franklin won the toss, and put Herts in first. L. J. Reid and C. B. Fordhom were opposed to the attack of W. E. Headlon and Edwards. The latter secured Fordham's wicket with only two runs on the board. This was a disastrous start, and Fordham's failure was the more surprising after his wenderfully patient and careful innings of the previous day. Cuthbertson opened his account with another fine drive, which went for six, and followed with a four, both off Edwards. He drove the same bowler for another six before being bowled by Hazelton for an innings of 21 made in nine minutes. He had tried to hook the ball to leg in the George Hirst style, but the ball did not rise. Two wickets were down for 25. C. H. Titchmarsh, after making six, put one into the hands of Edwards, at second slip, off the bowling of Hazelton. Thus three wickets were down for 35. Hazelton's two wickets up to this period had cost him nine runs. R. B. Cowley, who followed, was stumped by Franklin for one. Four wickets for 36! R. J. O. Meyer was Reid's next partner, but he was quickly out, without scoring, with the total at 41 for five. Reid, who had been batting for forty-five minutes, had scored 13 runs where joined by C. Dumpleton. The latter's stay was brief, and the sixth wicket fell with the total at 44 for five. Reid, who had been batting for an hour and thirty-five minutes for 21. was snartly caught and the sixth wicket fell with the fotal at 48 for five houndary. Reid was cancelly holding his end up, and occasionally getting a few runs.

Another wicket dropped soon after uncheon, Burton falling to Hazelton for seven, with the total at 98 for 9. Roberts, who followed, was missed at short slip befor

West Hest and Watford Observ: Saturday 14 August 1926-4

Another shower of rain delayed the opening of the Bucks innings, but the weather soon cleared, the sun shining brilliantly when T. A. M. Gardiner and C. Clover Brown went out to face the bowling of Meyer and Hylton-Stewart. Runs were difficult to get, and with five on the board Burton was put on for Hylton-Stewart. The first wicket fell after half an hour's play, Gardiner being caught by Reid, off Meyer, after scoring nine out of a total of 26. With two runs added, Meyer clean bowled L. G. Baker. Two wickets down for 28! This was three more than Herts had made at the fall of their second wicket. At 3.45 there was another shower, but play was resumed in ten minutes. Roberts went on for Burton with the total at 54. The first hour's batting produced 68 runs. Burton then relieved Meyer at the Park end, and, with the total at 80. Crossman smartly stumped Brown, who had batted well for a carefully collected 25, made in one hour ten minutes. At the ten interval Bucks were five behind the Herts score with soven wickets in hand.

the Herts score with seven wickets in hand.

On resuming, Roberts and Cuthbertson took up the attack, A 5 o'clock the Herts total was passed, and the 100 was reached after an hour and a half's batting. Franklin secured his 50 after hatting, seventy-five minutes. Meyer then went on for Cuthbertson, and Hylfon-Stewart displaced Roberts at 143. The Herts fielding was none too safe, and the bowling was proving expensive, At 169 Burton replaced Hylfon-Stewart. The partnership ended with the total at 187. Hazelton being lbw, to Meyer. He had contributed 44 in a partnership which had yielded 107 runs in an hour and a half. Franklin was 95 not out when joined by Batteock. Without any addition to the score, the new-comer was clean bowled by Meyer. Franklin reached his 100 in an hour and thirty-five minutes. The 200 went up in 31 hours. five minutes, hours. Why Cuthbe Cuthbertson should have been left idle so long was a mystery, and it seemed remarkable that he should have seemed remarkable that he should have been taken off after bowling three overs at a different end from that at which he had met with success against Dorset. Herts Tail Wags.

Herts Tail Wags.

Bucks resumed at the stipulated time on Thursday morning. Franklin added 15 to his overnight score of 123 not out, making eleven off Meyer's first over, but was eventually well taken on the boundary by Cowley off Roberts. His innings had been one of excellent all-round batting, and was the largest score of 'the week.' comparing very favourably with Knight's 133 for Dorset on Monday. The Bucks innings closed for 263, giving the visitors a lead on the first innings of 169. Meyer took six wickets for 87 and Roberts four for 53.

Herts commenced their second innings of 169. Meyer took six wickets for 87 and Roberts four for 53.

Herts commenced their second innings of 169. Meyer took six wickets for 87 and Roberts four for 53.

Herts commenced their second innings of 189. Meyer took six wickets for 87 and 8 benchedors to another bright innings of 32, which included three 6's and a four, before he was clean bowled by a fine boll from Hagelton. The score was then 48 for two. Burton left at 53, having scored 11. C. H. Titchmarsh and R. B. Cowley then became associated. Titchmarsh, after making 15, including three heautiful leg boundaries, was henten by a leg break hall from Edwards, with the total at 49 for four R. J. O. Meyer joined Cowley, and the two sent up the 100 in an hour and 16 minutes, Cowley contributing some suberb strokes all round the wicket in the 29 he had scored up to that period. Meyer gave a chance at mid-wicket when eight, but the rext ball he sent over the head of the same fielder for a boundary. Payne then relieved Hazdton at the Park end, and Meyer drove him for six. Cowley left at 118 after an admirable innings of 36, which included six 4's, The partnership had yielded 69 runs, Meyer hit one 6 and three 4's in his score of 24, when he was caught at square leg by James off Payne. The total was then 136 for six, and Herts required $3 to save the innings defeat, with four wickets to fall. The partnership of Dumpleton and Crossman accomplished this, for Dumpleton with four singles and seven 4's and Crossman three 4's brought the total to 170. With four more added from Dumpleton, the luncheon interval arrived with the total at 174 for six. Herts were then three runs on with four wickets to fall.

After lunch the bowlers were Payne and Hazelton, but shortly afterwards Battcock was tried in place of Hazelton, whom Dumpleton had been punishing rather severely. This change brought about the dismissal of Crossman, who was bowled off his pad after making 12 out of a partnership which had yielded 49 runs. The total was then at 185. then L. J. Reid came in Edwards went on for Payne. Dumpleton was batting with splendid powerful strokes, and reached his 50 in 40 minutes. He had then made 20 hits, which included eleven 4's. The 200 went up in two hours and 15 minutes. With his score at 63, and the total at 202. Dumpleton was dismissed by a catch in the long field by Gardiner off Edwards. He had hit thirteen 4's, and his was quite the best innings of the match. Hylton-Stewart left at 238, after and his was quite the best innings of the match. Hylton-Stewart left at 238, after making 15, Herts then being 69 on. With only nine more runs added, Reid was caught, and the inanings closed for 247, leaving Bucks 79 to get to win. Edwards had the best bowling average with six for 93. Hazelton's two had cost him 91.

with six for 93. Hazelton's two had cost him 91.

Bucks commenced their second knock at 3.40, with Gardiner and Clover Brown to the bowling of Meyer and Burton. Gardiner was bowled by Burton, with the total at 13. Only one run had been added when Brown was caught behind the wicket by Crossman off Burton. Reid drepped a catch from Franklin when the latter had scored 10. He caught the ball and appeared to be endeavouring to throw up the ball when it fell from his hands. This was a lucky let-off for Bucks. With the total at 22, Baker was smartly snapped at the wicket off Burton after baving made 22 out of 51, the partnership laving produced 37 runs. At 71 Cuthbertson went on for Burton, but the required runs were obtained by 3.35, and Bucks won by seven wickets. Score analysis. analysis.

Jottings on Local Games.

C. H. Titchmarsh is growing old in the service of Herts cricket. Twenty years ago he was making runs for his county, but it is questionable whether at any period of his career he has scored at a more prelific rate than during the present season.

Including his scores of 46 and 61 against Dorset on Monday and Tresday, his total for Herts in nine Minor Counties championship games this senson has reached 722. This is not his record for a season, in county matches alone, but the figure is rapidly approaching it, and with the remaining matches yet to be played there is every probability of his record aggregate being exceeded.

Notable amongst his efforts in matches previous to that against Dorset this sea-son have been 218 against Norfolk last week, 99 against Cambs, and 81 against Bedfordshipe.

R. B. Cowley has "blossomed" beside his diminutive colleague, whose style is very reminiscent of Willie Quaife, the Warwickshire veteran. The Berkhamsted amateur has expanded with time, but is still very active and can punish loose balls with great severity. His driving is as powerful as ever. Like Titchmarsh, he figured successfully as a rungetter in the game with Dorset.

Herts undoubtedly missed R. J. O. Meyer in their first "week" match this season. The Haileybury and Cambridge University player will leave England on the 26th of this month for India, where he is to take up cotton planting. It is quite within the realms of possibility that he may be heard of in connection with the forthcoming tour of an English team in India. Herts met Bedford at Bedford, and lost on the first innings. The home county knocked up 323 on the opening day, H. Davidson being responsible for 121 and Heldstock 77.

Herts reply was 209 (C. H. Titchmarsh 81 and R. B. Cowley 51). In their second innings Herts put on 86 for the loss of two wickets (Burfon not out 32 and C. B. Fordham 49).

West Herts put up a poor show at Cassio-road against Shepherd's Bush on Saturday, being dismissed for the small total of 29. The visitors' bowling was excellent, and Hazelton had five for 11 and Burgess 4 for 14.

Shepherd's Bush responded with 178 for the loss of three wickets, C. T. Burgess scoring 56 not out, F. Parker 40, and S. L. Beton 44.

Bushey were again without G. R. Walker, S. H. Townell, and W. King on Saturday, at South Hampstead. For Bushey, who batted first on a good wicket, A. H. Fisk, H. E. Stillwell, A. W. Hings, and W. Ingleson all batted well. Stillwell's innings was an invaluable one, and contained many good strokes all round the wicket, Fisk and Ingleson both drove exceedingly well, Ingleson hitting a ball into the Sidmouth-road. Pincklam bowled well for South Hampstead.

Set 164 to get in two and a quarter hours, W. S. Gwynne and Moss gave South Hampstead a good start, putting up 60 for the first wicket. At this stage Ingleson came on for Bowie and Wolff for Stillwell, with the result that four wickets fell for the addition of four runs. Wolff took three for 16 and Ingleson four for 24. Bowie and Stillwell then finished off the innings with ten minutes to go. This must be considered an excellent innings for Bushey, as South Hampstead had their strongest scam in the field.

Fred Gregory, Watford F.C.'s veteran full-back, who, by the way, has re-signed for the Club for another season, is also something by way of being a cricketer. On the occasion of Benskin's Brewery Athletic Club's visit (by the kind invitation of Colonel W. H. Briggs) to Little Buckhill on Saturday, whither 150 members of the Club made the journey in charabanc, Gregory greatly distinguished him%elf.

Out of Benskin's total of 87, Gregory, who went in at the fall of the first wicket, contributed a well-hit 55, and he played a big part in the dismissal of Little Buckhill for the meagre total 22, taking 8 wickets in 9 overs (3 of which were maidens) for 8 runs. In doing this he performed the "hat trick."

During the tea, at which the teams and members of the Club were entertained subsequently by Colonel Briggs, that gentleman presented a number of medals, bars, and certificates awarded by the National Council of Safety First League to motor drivers employed by Mesars, Benskin.

Rickmansworth suffered two defeats in the course of their holiday programme. On Monday, at Chesham, they were got rid of for 107 (R. W. Fox 31, J. Robertson 28, and E. Ford 20), and Chesham, replying with 147, won by 40 runs.

For Chosham, F. Wilson was principal scorer with 31 not out, while W. Reynolds made 30 and W. Lloyd Roberts 27. W. Goodyser, for Rickmansworth, took two wickets for no runs.

On Saturday Rickmansworth had to play second fiddle to Lyons, at Sudbury. Batting first, the visitors could only muster 87, of which R. W. Fox was responsible for 37. Lyons replied with 198 for 6 wickets (H. Faircloth 71 and G. Seaton 65). Clements, for Rickmansworth, took 5 for 34 (two wickets with consecutive balls twice).

Rickmansworth II. won their match with Abbots Langley by 57 runs on the first innings at Rickmansworth on Saturday. They dismissed the visitors for 51, and replied with 108 (R. Wallington 31). At their second venture Abbots Langley realised 110 (L. W. Barber 35 and G. F. Simons 22). For the winners, Walker took 2 for 3, Wallington 2 for 6, and Harborn 4 for 26. For Abbots Langley, F. Coleman secured 4 for 11 and L. W. Barker 4 for 28.

Batsmen were superior to bowlers in the match between Leavesden and Hemel Hempstead. Batting first, Hempstead lost H. Tarbox and W. England with 35 runs on, but B. W. Atkins and E. C. Coughtrey were associated in a partnership which took the total to 122 for three. Then B. Atkins left after making a fine 70, which included eight 4's and two 3's. E. C. Coughtrey's not out innings of 83 was one of his best performances for the Club. He played a forcing game and hit twelve 4's.

Leavesden, who went in against a total of 184 for four (declared), played out time. Moles and Glennister practically made defeat impossible by scoring 52 for the first wicket, and Grundy, the next man in, reached 25 without being defeated. When time was called, Leavesden had just passed the century for the loss of four wickets. Bowling for Hempstead, A. Atkins and T. Tarbox each took two for 25, P. Johnson none for 20, and B. Atkins none for 28.

Over '350 runs were scored in the match between Hemel Hempstead 2nd XI. and Leavesden 2nd XI. at Hemel Hempstead. Extra time was played to give Leavesden an opportunity to win or lose the match, and they won with four wickers in hand. Mead batted extremely well for 78 for Leavesden, but was very cautious, as the fact that he hit only six fours shows. Downie's 58 for Hempstead included seven fours. There were no outstanding bowling achievements.

Boxmoor maintained their improved form by beating Waterlow's (Watford) for the first time in three years, and incidentally scoring their eleventh win of the season. Waterlow's opened the batting confidently, but G. Anniss found his length and bowled well, taking 5 wickets for 28. For once in a way, Ben Carpenter did not come off, and when the eighth wicket had put on 29 runs, Carpenter's single success had cost 30 runs. H. Wykes was put on, and took the last three wickets for four runs.

Going in against a total of 76, Hoxmoor lost 2 wickets for 15, but W. Reynolds batted patiently for 25, and was fifth out. He received good support from S. Cowley (17). With seven wickets down, Boxmoor were still 16 runs behind, but W. Whybrow, who was capitaining the team in place of W. Bonfield, rose to the occasion, and before the next wicket fell Waterlow's total had been exceeded by one.

Berkhamsted's second string proved no match for the R.A.F. (Headquarters Inland Area). After making 60 for 5, Berkhumsted collapsed, and were all out for 86, Parkinson taking 6 wickets for 26. The R.A.F. started disastronsly, losing 3 wickets for 15. The fourth fell at 62, and then the efforts of six bowlers failed to disturb Thompson and Bassett. who added 86 runs without being beaten, and played out time. Thompson's 71 included eight fours.

West Herts II. did much better than the first team, having much the best of a drawn game at Shepherd's Bush. The home side made 195, and West Herts were within 10 of this total with only four wickets down. R. F. James had a splendid innings of 86, and J. H. Body gave him good support. James knocked the ball out of the ground five times.

Watford Junction, on Saturday, beat Park-street and Frogmore by 59 runs (103 to 46). W. Desborough, who scored 37, and W. Newman, who took 6 wickets for 18, had most to do with this victory.

ORICKET MATCHES.

LINCOLNSHIRE +. HERTS. A DRAWN GAME.

The above match was played at Grimsby on the 19th and 20th insts., and resulted in a draw, but Lines take three points for their lead on the first innings. The weather was showery, but did not interfere with the game.

The Herts skipper won the toss and decided to put Lincolnshire in on what appeared to be a soft but easy-paced wicket. Bashforth and Frearson opened the innings, Fordham and Hylton Stewart bowling. At 20 three was a double change in the bowling, Burton and Roberts coming on. With 40 runs on the board. Frearson left, being bowled by Burton, and Stamp joined Bashforth. This pair carried the score to 115, when Bashforth was caught off Burton, his 62 including 9 fours. With the addition of 4 runs, both Ross and Falconer left, the lunch-time score being 119 for 4 wickets, Stamp not out 25.

On the resumption the score rose steadily between the fall of each wicket, and the side was dismissed for 225. A feature of the innings was that Stamp had batted 3 hours for 50, a slow but valuable innings for his side. Except for the luncheon interval Burton bowled continuously for over 3 hours, and the fielding of Brown came in for generous applause from the large number of spectators.

The Herte innings was started by Fordham and Reid, the latter was out lbw with no runs on the board. Cuthbertsen came in, and indulged in some huge lifting, which delighted the crowd. He speedily hit up 35, which included 3 sixes and 3 fours. Titchmarsh came in and assisted Fordham to add 40. When Fordham left. Cowley came in and quickly hit up 16, when he was bowled by the last half of the first day's play. The close of play score was 125 runs for 4 wickets.

On the second day Herts made a disastrous start, losing 3 wickets for the addition of 13 runs. Titchmarsh had completed his 50 when the score had reached 167, but at 187 he was cleverly caught behind the wicket. He had played a very fine innings finished for 194 runs.

Titchmarsh's aggregate for Minor County cricket this year is 807 runs, and the innings finished for 194 run

A CENTURY AGAINST RADLETT.

Lye House put up a good fight against Radlett, on the Aldenham ground, on Saturday, but were beaten by 18 runs. Radlett, batting first, opened steadily, and, follogying a splendid stand by A. L. lingard, who hit hard and often to collect 89, and C. Dumbleton, declared with 182 for 8 wickets. Lye House started badly, losing four men for only ten runs, but Glendening, with a very fine effort, endeavoured to save the game. His wicket, the last to fall, was not taken until the second ball of the final over, and he had then 112, collected by stylish batsmanship, to his credit. Scores:—

REVIEW OF THE SEASON. Mr. Titchmarsh's Records.

REVIEW OF THE BEASON.

Mr. Titchmarsh's Records.

The season 1926 will be remembered as a very unsatisfactory one for the County XI. With an extended list of 12 matches they won 3 and lost 3 outright, whilst I was won and 5 lost on the first innings. The County thus took 23 points out of a possible 60, and finished thirteenth out of 23 minor counties. In 1924 they finished fifth and in 1925 fourth.

L. J. Reid, the Herts akipper, has had a very anxious time, as the fielding, a most important brunch of the game, had deteriorated considerably. When one considers that the best bataman on any side is not certain of soring a run, whilst on the other hand a good fieldsman may always save 30 or 40 runs, the importance of good fielding can at once be appreciated.

C. H. Titchmarsh heads the batti g averages with a record aggregate of 890 runs secored for Hents in the Minor Counties Championship. Mr. C. H. Titchmarsh remains in wonderful form despite the passing of years, and his performances are atill as attractive as they were 13 years ago, when he scored over 4,000 runs and 21 centuries in one season. It is interesting to note that Mr. Titchunarsh made the highest score of bis career in county cricket this year, when he made 218 at Norwich v. Norfolk, R. J. O. Meyer is second in the list, and R. B. Cowley third, the latter having a much-improved average and aggregate. C. Dumpleton and A. Cuthbertson, who played in the last three matches, showed promising form and strongthened the side. C. B. Fordham, who has had two seasons with the county, was very consistent.

R. J. O. Meyer heads the bowling averages. Unfortunately he was only avail.

has had two seasons with the county, was very consistent.

R. J. O. Meyer heads the bowling averages. Unfortunately he was only available for four matches, and has now departed for India, and with his departure Herts has lost the greatest all-rounder the county has ever produced. First-class cricketers who have p syed with a daga ast the renowned Sid Barnes say that Meyer's bowling action is very much like that of the former Lancashire and England player. Meyer has a beautiful action, and a power of imparting a finger spin which is amazing. He invariably commences his run with both hands round the ball. He bowled the Australians out at Cambridge, and bowked wonderfully well in the Test trial, so much so that the Aust atlans said he was one of the best bowlers they had been up against. He has the ability to become a really first-class batsman, but cannot resist the sporting temptation of having a "smack." He is also a magnificent slip field. Meyer has a cheery and likeable manner, and all who have come into contact with him will wish him the best of luck and a speedy return to Hertfordshire crickot. the Australians out at Cambridge.

Fred Burton, who has taken 67 wickets, has, in the absence of Meyer, had to bear the brunt of the attack, and after 16 years in county cricket he is bowling as well as ever. He bows a consistent good length, and can apply the off-break at will, whilst few bowlers make the ball come quicker oft the pitch. Roberts, a youngezer from West Herts, has done very well in his first year for the county, and should be a considerable asset in fortheoming seasons. Cutibertson, Hylton Stewart, and Fordman bave all rendered valuable assistance to the regular bowlers.

The wicket-keeping for the County has been in the very capable hands of A. Grimsdell and G. M. Crossman, both having rendered valuable services in that most important department.

P. G. T. Kingsley and S. Brown, who played in one match, did splendid work in the field. Kingsley is also a very flue bat, and will go a long way further. Colin Hunter will probably return to the side next year, and this will give the County, with the two already mentioned, a magnificent trio of fielders.

The Gentlemen of Herts and County Club, under the admirable guidance and leadership of the energetic hon. secretary, Mr. E. H. Wales, have had another very highly successful season, having won 18 matches, lost 4, drawn 4, whilst 2 were abandoned.

P. R. Paul and C. H. Titchmarsh top the batting averages, and very consistent performances have been put in by G. R. Walker and R. J. V. Spurway, the former having an aggregate of 438 runs, the highest of the list.

L. J. Reid heads the bowling, but Roberts, Marsh, Cuthbertson, Barnzs, and Burton have taken a larger number of wickets, and have done yeoman service for the County Club in that department. Marsh, who has for years, past borne the brust of the bowling, took 54 wickets and bowled over 300 overs. It is worthy of note that Marsh has taken nearly 5,000 wickets in his long career.

There has been a welcome revival of country house cricket in the county during the season, and there have been some very good matches witnessed.
