Sources:	Bucks Free Press 10 August; Windsor Express 17 August; Bucks Herald 17 August; Slough Observer.
Nature of report:	Full in Free Press,shorter in Express and Herald.
Notes:	Bucks had 80 minutes to score 111 and won with two minutes to spare. Fawcus 6 x 4 in his 65.
	There was a record crowd.
	RJ Shaw, of the Royal Navy, was the son of Bishop Shaw, whose two older sons had been killed in the war.
	The score has been amended to remove four from Franklin and the Bucks total in the second innings, also taking four off the bowling of Burton as Franklin hit a further boundary after the match had been won
Differs from K Preston	Bucks batted first; Herts followed on. Also see note above.
