FREE BATTING

DEVON DUMPLINGS FARE BADLY

R. N. BARRACKS at Keyham yesterday defeated Devon Dumplings by 127 runs. The return of Lieut. Stephenson considerably strengthened the Barracks' attack, while he also displayed good form with the bat.

The Barracks, who batted first, lost three wickets for 4 runs, while further disaster followed four runs later when Lieut.-Com. Browning was bowled by Simmons. Then came a valuable partnership for 136 runs between Lieut.-Com. Sharpe and Paymr.-Com. Hussey for the fifth wicket. Sharpe was eventually dismissed for 83, which included one 5 and twelve 4's, and his partner made 66, including one 6 and thirteen 4's.

Lieut. Stephenson carried out his bat for 48, including eight boundaries. The innings was declared closed at 240 for 8 wickets. B. G. Heslop took 3 for 45, and Simmons 2 for 48.

Dumplings fared disastrously on facing Stephenson and Terry, the former being almost unplayable, and half the side were dismissed for 41. Seventy-one runs were added by the last-wicket pair, Rev. G. L. A. Heslop (41 not out) and Lieut.-Com. J. S. Cronin (22). Lieut. Stephenson took 7 for 20, and Lieut. Terry 2 for 17. Scores—

GOOD cricket was witnessed by the largest crowd seen at Queen's Park, Paignton, this season, when Paignton defeated their neighbours, Torquay, by three wickets.

Vaughan, the Paignton professional, did well with the ball, taking 7 wickets for 61, and Sadler, the Torquay professional, in taking 5 for 46, did the "hat trick," getting the wickets of Swift, Bacon, and Webber, the first two being bowled and Webber caught. ## WESTCOUNTRY CRICKET

NOTABLE FEATS

HONOURS SHARED EQUALLY

THERE was little to choose between batsmen and bowlers in Saturday's cricket in the West, although there were some very fine batting efforts, topped by W. Warne's 116, for Pencarrow against St. Austell "A."

Greenwood's 110 not out for Newquay against the Truro Cathedral School will help towards his season's average. Further fine performances were given by T. Peters for Buckfastleigh, who made 107, and J. Ker, who contributed 105 to North Devon's total against Somerset Stragglers.

Four bowlers each took eight wickets, and one had an average of less than one run per wicket.

TORQUAY 'DOUBLE' OVER SOUTH DEVON

CLEVER BOWLING

TORQUAY secured the "double" at the expense of South Devon at Newton Abbot in a game which could only be described as freakish. The margin between the teams was 13 runs.

To all intents and purposes the wicket looked a batsmen's paradise when South Devon began batting, but with Tait bowling in devastating fashion, the side were all out for 78. Four wickets fell with the total at 36, and only three batsmen, E. Simmons, K. A. Pascoe and J. W. Wilkinson, attained double figures. Tait returned the remarkable analysis of 7 for 31.

Torquay's position appeared impregnable, but it was South Devon's turn to provide the shocks. Of the early batsmen, only R. Bimmore was able to stand up to the bowling, and no fewer than six Torquay players were dismissed for 47. Hopes of South Devon snatching a win, however, were dispelled by A. V. Twose, who hit 23 invaluable runs. The dismissal of the remaining batsmen was brought about by Groves, who took 4 for 2, while Hayhurst secured 4 for 23, including his 100th wicket for the season. EXCITING FINISH AT PLYMOUTH

O.P.M.s v. CITY CLUB

BOWLER CAPTURES HIS HUNDREDTH WICKET

THE last match of the O.P.M.s Cricket Week at Ford Park resulted in a draw after an exciting finish. The Old Boys, playing Plymouth, batted first and scored 111. Plymouth were just unable to reach this total before stumps were drawn and their final score was 107 for eight wickets.

A feature of the match was the combination of Moule, at short mid-off, and Aitken Davies, bowling for Plymouth. Moule caught five men off Aitken-Davies bowling. Aitken-Davies, who has been playing for the O.P.M.s during the week, took nine of the Old Boys' wickets for 54 runs, and completed his hundredth wicket for the season. During the three previous days, playing for the O.P.M.s, Aitken-Davies has had averages of 6 for 45, 6 for 36, and, in two innings, 12 for 54.

When Plymouth had scored 100, twenty minutes before time, they had five wickets in hand, and looked easy winners. But then they lost three wickets without adding a run, largely due to two brilliant slip catches by Mercer. Even then Plymouth might have won had they gone for the bowling. Scores:—

COL. BATTERSBY'S FINE RECORD FOR REGIMENT

EXETER were saved by the clock in their match with the Devonshire Regiment, who, with four wickets intact, needed only that number of runs for victory when stumps were drawn.

In attempting a forcing drive for a winning hit, Beane mistimed his effort and was clean bowled by Stephenson.

Apart from Knapman, who hit an attractive 50, Exeter's batsmen failed, and the side were out for 161 on an easy wicket. This left the Regiment with a task which would have been accomplished without difficulty had the rate of scoring been expedited before the tea interval.

WEST COUNTRY CLUB CRICKET

UNEVEN BATTING

MANY GOOD BOWLING PERFORMANCES

BOWLERS seemed to meet with more success than did batsmen in Westcountry club cricket on Saturday, and, whereas there were many bowling feats recorded, there were comparatively few outstanding features from the batsmen.

Three centuries were compiled, by Lieut. Hargrave, of R.N.E. College, against Incogniti; E. Clinton, Chudleigh v. U.C.S. Old Boys; and S. Barnicoat, Penzance v. St. Austell; while Pte Close, Gloucester Regt., made 96 and Hooper, of the Corinthians, 98.

The best bowling performance was by E. Aitken-Davies, who took nine O.P.M. wickets for 54 runs for Plymouth, and also completed his century of wickets this season.

F. S. Campling bowled extremely well for Devon against Cornwall at Torquay, and altogether took 13 wickets for 117 runs.

GOOD BOWLING PERFORMANCES

UNEVEN BATTING

In a twelve a-side match at Peverell Park yesterday, Plymouth beat T. T. Lane's XI. by 40 runs.

Batting first on an easy wicket, Plymouth made a good start, 50 being on the board in 27 minutes, and 153 appeared for the loss of five wickets. A collapse followed, due to T. T. Lane, who besides taking 4 wickets in one over for no runs, had the final analysis of 7 for 33, the last wicket falling at 190.

The visitors made a good start, and Have and Uren, the Devon County player, carried the score into the seventies, when Have was bowled for a bright 30. Uren could find no partner to stay with him against the bowling of Keeling (4 for 23) and Aitken-Davies (6 for 49), and after he was dismissed for a fine 63, the remaining wickets soon fell and the side were all out for 156.
