Harpenden
 Herts County Club 223.....(8 wks.) 194
 Herts County Club found the wicket to their liking at Harpenden on Wednesday, and thanks chiefly to Hughes, Herod and Edwards, the total reached 223. Marsh was untiring with the ball, bowling 27 overs, and he earned his reward of 6 wickets for 108 runs.

Soole and Mole made a big stand for Harpenden's second wicket, but apart from Search the latter batsmen failed. Mole was caught at 85 off Cox. When stumps were drawn Harpenden needed 20 runs for victory with two wickets in hand. Score:

LATE CUTS

Stanmore 115.....Harlequins 108

In the past this match has been a special "day out" for batsmen. This year, however, the rain spoilt the wicket in the morning, and runs were hard to get. The efforts of J. B. Chapman, who is in splendid form this season, saved Stanmore from an overwhelming defeat. The Harlequins won by 47 runs.

Old Merchant Taylors
 Stanmore (4 wks. dec.) 205.. (4 wks.) 199

Rain interrupted the play and handicapped the bowlers when play was resumed. The match drew to an exciting conclusion, and the final scores serve to show what burden of responsibility was carried by the man who bowled the last over.

Watford British Legion II.
 (3 wks., dec.) 108.....Malchar 42

Declaring at 108 for five, the Legion had Malchar out for 42 on Sunday, to gain the honours by 66 runs. Jordan took 6 for 18, all being taken in the field.

Dickinson's (Croxley)
 (9 wks., dec.) 100.....Cassell's (3 wks.) 136

Croxley declared at 106, with their last pair at the crease on Saturday, but Cassell's were in great form, and Hudson and Aylott made a big stand and passed Croxley's total for the loss of two wickets, before Hudson was stumped.

Sarratt 46.....Kingham Athletic 81

One of the few completed games was Kingham Athletic's victory at Sarratt by 35 runs, in a 12 a-side match.

West Herts Evening XI.
 Audenthor 86.....(5 wks.) 166

Audenthor won the toss and elected to bat, but they were all out for 86. Besides taking five wickets for 21 runs, Edwards made a spectacular catch to dismiss Rowe, holding the ball at the third attempt full length on the ground. Bad light stopped play.

Watford Grammar School

St. Dunstan's
 (3 wks.), 179.....College 167

In this match, at Watford, on June 9, the winners scored 179 in 95 minutes.

WEST HERTS ON THE WINNING PATH

WEST HERTS were on the winning path during the holidays, victory at Chorleywood on Saturday being followed by an equally convincing success at Harpenden.

Hawes Clean Bowls Seven

Hawes was in a devastating mood, his seven Chorleywood wickets (all clean bowled) being obtained in 16.3 overs at a cost of 57 runs.

Missed early on, Priestley was the sole saviour of his side, and his undefeated 82 was more than half of the total. Take away his contribution, Waghorn's 24, and eight batsmen and extras made 38!

Priestley found the boundary 13 times. West Herts opening partnership realised ten short of three figures, Grimsdell's first six scoring shots were all fours.

Whitteridge bowled consistently for Chorleywood taking six for 24, but Cooper, the fast merchant, conceded 87 runs without securing a wicket.

Deverell's Promising Debut

Playing his first game for the premier eleven, C. S. Deverell was responsible for the dismissal of the first six Harpenden wickets. Five victims were off his own bowling (for 15 runs) and he caught Cook off Eade.

Harpenden's score of 79 was passed for the loss of three wickets, Kendrick being in his best form. He hit a six and three fours. Connolly had a bright but brief knock, two sixes and a four being included in his 22.

The veteran Marsh got his usual quota of wickets—six for 70.

In a second knock Harpenden hit up 120 for three declared, and West Herts had 48 for the loss of Fraser's wicket. Score:—

IN HEMPSTEAD SCORING RIOT

Hemel Hempstead (4 wks., dec.) 288.....Radlett (9 wks.) 197

On a hard, true wicket, of which the home team, batting first, took full advantage. After Tarbox had helped to put on 65 for the first wicket, there came a riot of runs from Porter and Huband, who, scoring at the rate of two runs a minute, took the score from 97 to 253.

Porter's undefeated innings included seven sixes and 12 fours, whilst Huband, who should have been run out before scoring, hit 11 fours. Porter was missed twice in the 90's, and Huband should have been stumped off the ball before the one which bowled him.

Radlett opened confidently, 123 being on the board for the loss of only four wickets. Golby's innings (he was last out) was the best thing of the afternoon, his defence being especially noteworthy. He hit four sixes and eight fours. Radlett's ninth wicket fell in the last over, but the home team were unable to force a victory. Score:

CRICKET AVERAGES.

GENTLEMEN OF HERTS AND COUNTY CLUB MATCHES.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

The Herts County Club has had another very successful season in so far as its Gentlemen of Herts and County Club matches are concerned.

Thirty-two matches were arranged, of which 14 were won, 9 lost and 8 drawn, while one was abandoned. One hundred players, from all parts of Hertfordshire, have played in these attractive and interesting games, and have visited most of the Public Schools and all the principal clubs in the County.

K. Brown heads the batting with an average of 80, while J. N. Hartley has the highest aggregate of runs, followed by M. A. Wiggs, M. Cranfield, A. Grimdell, G. R. Walker and E. R. Hott.

C. W. Ford heads the bowling averages, but once again the brunt of the attack has fallen upon W. H. Marsh, who has bowled 431 overs, of which 101 were maiden, taking 85 wickets at a cost of 13.89 each. Marsh, it is interesting to note, took thirty more wickets than he did last season. A. W. Cox took 47 wickets, while M. A. Wiggs captured 18 and E. N. Herod 14.

The averages for the Gentlemen of Herts and County Club matches are—

TABLES TURNED ON ST. ALBANS.

Northampton Polytechnic visited Clarence Park on Saturday, eager to avenge the five-run defeat which they had suffered at Albans...

St. Albans batted first and Rastall was missed in the slips before scoring. After this, he looked set for a big score, as he was batting excellently...

Crocker was out next ball, and the Rabone brothers then entered into partnership. Although both are normally free-scoring batsmen, neither could make much of the runs...

Runs were now wanted quickly and Weatherhead, when joined by Ewing, immediately adopted the right policy and, by good footwork, showed that the bowling could be hit...

The score reached 105 before St. Albans succeeded in their endeavours to effect a separation, and then Boddella was well caught by Rastall in the slips off Holt...

When the last wicket fell Hemel Hempstead were 3 short of Chesham's total of 158. Scores:—

GOOSE SUPPER & ANNUAL MEETING.
The members of the Club, and friends to the number of about fifty, assembled at the Pavilion at Beech Bottom, on Wednesday, for the customary goose supper, which was followed by the annual meeting. Colonel A. B. Cliff presided.

During the course of a jolly evening, Mr. Harry Gordon presented a bat—autographed by members of the Kent and Middlesex teams—to Maurice Wiggs, who was at the head of the batting averages, having scored only nine short of a thousand runs, a record for the Club. Mr. Gordon also presented a pipe to D. C. Urry, who took 82 wickets at an average cost of 7.94 each.

At the annual meeting it was reported that the season had been most satisfactory, and the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer (Mr. R. F. George) stated that the accounts showed an excess of receipts over expenditure of £38 18s. 10d. There was, however, a net overdraft of £22 5s., which he hoped would be completely wiped out next year.

Colonel Cliff said he would like to see the working parties, which used to be held at Beech Bottom, in action again. He felt that, although the ground was a great credit to the Club, and they were extremely fortunate in having it, they might, with the re-introduction of the working parties, set it into even better order.

The following officers were elected:—President, Mr. W. T. Marsh; Captain Saturday 1st XI, H. L. Harvey; Vice-Captain, M. A. Wiggs; 2nd XI, Captain, A. G. Harvey; Vice-Captain, G. D. Wiggs; Captain, Sunday XI, A. G. Owen; Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. R. F. George; Hon. Match Secretary, Mr. W. H. Godwin; Hon. Team Secretary, Mr. H. L. Harvey; Committee, Colonel A. B. Cliff and Messrs. J. A. Goldsmith, W. L. Goldsmith, J. H. Sidney and D. C. Urry.

Thanks were accorded the Chairman for his kindness to the Club and his enthusiasm in travelling from Chester to be present.

Cricket Averages

West Herts More Convincing

GENUINE attempts to play bright forcing cricket, and a greater desire to bring each match to a definite result, won for West Herts a more sympathetic following than for some seasons past. The batting had more backbone for the side had no longer to rely on the performances of a few. Goodall was outstanding. The bowling lacked variety, but was not without sting when Hawes and Stimpson found a length.

Of 22 matches played 9 were won and 5 lost. Another few minutes and several of the seven drawn games would have produced a win for West Herts.

The averages were as follows:—

ALL-ROUND IMPROVEMENT AT HEMPSTEAD

N. K. F. Porter and W. S. Capel, who last year headed Hemel Hempstead's batting and bowling averages respectively, retain the honours this year. Both showed improved figures. Porter's average of 41.5 is a considerable advance, and Capel has increased the number of his victims from 46 to 82, with a proportional decline in the number of runs per wicket.

The club performances also show improvement—on an already high standard.

*Bedfordshire 4 Hertfordshire 2

It was a strange Herts side that lined up at Bedford on Wednesday, no fewer than six reserves being included. This season, Herts seem to find difficulty in turning out a representative side on a Wednesday.

Beds played good constructive hockey during the first half, and scored four times—Thompson from a long corner; Rawlings, Thompson and Rawlings, from a short corner, hit through. During this period, Herts were not together and the defence was unsteady.

After the interval, Herts made one positional change and things went better. Beds failed to increase their lead and Herts scored twice. Hawwood obtained the first goal with a tremendous drive, and Holson scored the second following some pretty passing.

Herts kept working away and, with a little luck, would have reduced the lead still further, but luck was just a little unkind. The side settled down when it was too late to save a game that was virtually lost before the interval.

Rawlings led the Bedfordshire forward line in good style, but their main strength lay in their half-backs, ably supported by Vincent.

Wakelam played very well for Herts, as did Jewell at back. Holson was the pick of the forwards.

Beds: C. H. Peadar (Bedford); C. Vincent (Oldham), A. B. Pook (Bedford), L. F. Spruce (Oldham), W. H. Town (Luton), P. N. Curran (Luton); J. Macdonald (Luton), H. A. Thompson, F. Rawlings (Bedford), G. Turner (R.A.F. Henlow), J. R. Oliver (Luton).—Herts: H. E. C. Goddard (St. Albans); T. Moxham (St. Albans), H. J. Jewell (Harpenden); W. W. McDougall (St. Albans), J. Wilds (Haddenham); J. W. Wakelam (Bloxbourne); S. R. Hamilton (Bloxbourne), C. S. Hawwood (Harpenden), J. Hatrick (Huntington), A. Woodward (East Herts), M. E. A. Rolson (West Herts).
