Gentlemen of Ireland v. Minor Counties

Although the Gentlemen of Ireland collapsed yesterday before some excellent bowling by L.N. Jones (Cheshire) they still retained the hold obtained over Minor Counties at Dublin on Saturday. A thunderstorm broke over the ground when Minor Counties had begun their task of scoring 213 to win, and to-day they will resume still needing 152 with six wickets to fall. Smith (Cambridgeshire) started the Gentlemen of Ireland's breakdown by disposing of the brothers Quinn. When Boucher and Crothers looked like making a stand Jones was brought back to the attack, and he wrought havoc. Sending down thirteen balls, he finished off the innings by taking four wickets for two runs, and his full analysis gave him five victims for eight runs.

Bury v. Norwich Wanderers

Rain caused the match between Bury and West Suffolk and Norwich Wanderers at Bury St. Edmunds yesterday, to be abandoned as a draw when the Wanderers had scored 67 for two wickets in reply to the home score of 177. The feature of the play was an excellent innings of 93 by Co-ill, who went in at the fall of the second wicket and was last out. Chief bowling honours were shared by the left-handers, Clements, who took three wickets in 22 overs for 65 runs, and Powell, four wickets for 44. Stevens kept wicket in fine style and did not allow a bye.

The Wanderers lost their first two wickets for 17 runs, but Webster and Stevens were making an excellent stand when rain stopped play.

NORFOLK CLUB AND GROUND AT YARMOUTH CENTURY BY R. W. PERKINS.

For the second year in succession Great Yarmouth gained an easy victory at Southtown over a Norfolk Club and Ground side. In Saturday's match R W Perkins enjoyed a personal triumph, as in addition to scoring 108 runs he obtained six wickets for 16 runs. Going in when the first wicket had fallen at 2, Perkins was ninth out at 167, and the last wicket fell in the same over without addition to the total. Perkins made his runs in two and a-half hours with a good variety of strokes, having one 6—a square leg hit off Reilly—and six 4s as his chief hits. Early in his innings he gave a difficult chance in the slips off Plich's bowling, and when in the seventies he was missed on the leg boundary off Scragg. Hudson, who hit especially well to leg, helped Perkins to add 111 for the third wicket, but the other nine men scored only 12 runs between them, the only extra of the innings being a wide.

Abbs obtained the first two wickets in his first two overs and the fielding side met with no further success until Scragg came on to bowl. The slow left-hander bowled Hudson in his second over and Perkins was missed off him in his next over. Bowling well, Scragg and Falcon finished off the innings, Falcon taking five of the last seven wickets, including Perkins, for 41 runs.

The Club and Ground lost their first batsman at 6 to a very good c and b by Rouse, and a good catch at the wicket on the leg side by Fanton brought about the dismissal of Abbs. Edrich batted well for a while, but soon after Perkins took the ball from Boast at 27 the innings became a procession, eight wickets falling for 24 runs.

Although uncertain in regard to length, Perkins turned the ball skilfully from leg, sometimes beating the bat and everything behind it. Fanton dismissed Edrich by a good piece of stumping, and Edrich's 16 was the top score for the side, and only the third double figure contribution to the match. Plich was twice missed while sharing in several little partnerships. In 9.4 overs Perkins took 6 wickets for 16, and Rouse, who bowled very steadily against the wind through the innings, secured three wickets for 25.

Favourable mention should be made of the wicketkeeping of Gilbert and Fanton. There was a cold and strong wind.

Dereham, at home, lost to Heacham by two runs. Heacham's total of 99 did not appear to be too large for Dereham's prospects of a first victory of the season, especially when 64 runs were on the board for only four wickets. The Dereham "tail," however, fared badly against the slow bowling of Evans and Nobes, who took three wickets for 22 runs and four for 19 respectively. East Norfolk v. Trinity
Tom Tits

QUICK CENTURY BY R. H. GLADDEN

R. H. Gladden's 109 out of 171 in 77 minutes with three sixes and sixteen fours as his chief hits, was an outstanding feature in East Norfolk's match with Trinity Tom Tits at Smallburgh on Saturday. All through his innings Gladden hooked and drove with great power. After an opening single he hooked Ryan to the boundary and in the same over hit the first of his three sixes, which were all big on drives. Gladden hit three fours in one over from Westwood and in an over from Grant, a slow left-hander, he hit two fours and a six. East Norfolk lost their first wicket to the ninth ball of the innings and while F. Hamer, who cut neatly, and Gladden added 63 runs in 35 minutes the Tom Tits had no one in the deep field. The necessity for putting some men out was forced upon them by the fierce hitting of Gladden, and when in the forties he was missed on the square leg boundary off Grant. Capt. Baker, who assisted in a third wicket partnership which produced 102 runs in 35 minutes, also had a punishing off drive and cut beautifully, square and late. Gladden completed his century with a soaring six, hit another lofty boundary which offered possibilities of a catch and was bowled by a good ball in the next over. Three more wickets fell while 24 runs were added and East Norfolk declared with 195 for 6 wickets. Baker having hit nine fours in his not out 50.

The Tom Tits had previously been dismissed for 92, and they were faced with the prospect of a single innings defeat. In the first innings only B. M. Fisher, the Eton captain of two years ago, R. J. Knight, and J. C. N. Westwood, the Mariborough captain of last year, had offered much resistance to the East Norfolk bowling. M. Falcon bowled unchanged through the innings, varying his length and pace and occasionally beating the bat and the wicket with his off-break. T. B. Raikes met with considerable success. Keeping a length and bringing the ball back against the cross-wind, he presented difficulties to all the batsmen. He obtained a wicket in his first over and took four of the first five wickets in ten overs for 13 runs. Hamer relieved him to take two quick wickets, and Raikes, coming on again, quickly obtained another wicket to bring his full figures to five for 13.

The Tom Tits captain reversed the batting order for the second innings, beginning with Nos. 11 and 10 and following with the other high numbers. Five of them were soon back in the pavilion, J. H. Owens taking four of their wickets for 17 runs. Lumsden helped Westwood to check the rot, and when the former left at 42 Westwood had another good partner in Knight. Westwood hit brilliantly, and when stumps were drawn the visitors had scored 135 in sixty-eight minutes and had three wickets left. Westwood's 80 included one five, twelve fours, and three threes.

Colman Cup

CARROW'S WIN OVER CANNON STREET

The annual match for the Colman Cup was played at Gatton Park, Surrey, on the picturesque cricket ground of Sir Jeremiah and Lady Colman. Carrow beat Cannon Street easily.

Cannon Street won the toss and Giggins and Minns opened the innings to the bowling of Corran and Cant. Giggins did not stay long, hitting his wicket whilst playing a ball from Corran. Minns left shortly after, being bowled by Corran; Wallis was soon bowled by Cant. Green, who played some good forceful cricket, was dismissed by a smart catch by Margrave off Cant's bowling. Amis, who batted confidently, was run out, and the remaining batsmen were soon disposed of by Cant, Corran and Tyrrell.

Carrow started their innings with Margrave and Cantlay, and 31 runs were scored when Margrave lost his wicket to Wallis. Cantlay batted quite freely before being lbw to Baker after scoring 21 runs. R. W. Morley was bowled by Baker for 2. Corran was next out after battling finely for 27 runs. Tyrrell joined Cant and the batsmen scored freely, and the Cannon Street score was passed with Carrow having lost only four wickets. Stumps were drawn after Cant, who had scored 36 runs by crisp and enterprising cricket, was out to Green. After the match Sir Jeremiah Colman presented the cup to H. A. G. Salter, the captain of the Carrow team, who made a very suitable speech in reply.

Cant took 5 for 51. Corran 2 for 15, Baker 2 for 22.

Dereham v. Norwich Wanderers

Heavy rain after tea caused the Dereham-Norwich Wanderers match at Dereham to be drawn at a point when the Wanderers were well placed. It was Groundsman Webb's benefit day. The Norwich team, as on their earlier visit to Dereham, made a disastrous start, and had six men out for 44, but once again Stevens stepped into the breach and, with Scragg as his partner, pulled the game round. Scragg, who made 60 not out for the second week in succession, and Utting put on 64 runs for the last wicket before the Wanderers declared. In half an hour Dereham lost four good wickets. Webb took 2 for 42, Barton four for 57, Masters one for 26, Clarke one for 15, Utting two for 10, Rushforth one for 9, and Scragg one for 8.

North Norfolk League Final

BALE WIN AT MELTON PARK
 The final between the two winning sectional teams in the North Norfolk League, Bale and Barningham, was played on Melton Park, Bale winning easily. There was a large crowd of spectators. Batting first, Barningham adopted purely defensive tactics and it was only Lee who introduced a little liveliness into the innings, which realised only 21. Wright took 2 for 2, Preston 1 for 1, Bennell 3 for 5, and Brown 2 for 5. Bale had no difficulty in passing their opponents' figure, but immediately after several wickets tumbled for, practically nothing. Their tail-end batsmen, however, lifted the total to respectable dimensions. A notable feature was Barningham's smart fielding.

Mr. H. Clements, chairman of the league, regretted that owing to previous engagement Lord and Lady Hastings were unable to make the presentations, which duty was carried out by the Hon. Jean Astley, supported by the Hon. Simon Astley.

A second presentation was that of Lord Rothermere's Cup for the North Norfolk "knock-out" (20 overs) competition. This was handed over to Hindringham's captain, F. Howard, and there were accompanying medals with this as with the league cup.
 The Hon. Simon Astley said that it had given great pleasure to Lord and Lady Hastings to place the park ground at the disposal of the league for this final.

18 Wickets in a Match

FAST BOWLER'S FEAT FOR KENT II.

A remarkable feat was achieved in the Minor Counties' competition yesterday, when Harding, a fast bowler, playing for Kent II., took 18 wickets in the match with Wiltshire at Swindon.

In Wiltshire's first innings of 138 Harding claimed nine wickets for 39 runs, and in the second innings of 119 the Kent bowler took nine for 61, thus having a full record of 18 victims at a cost of just over 5 runs apiece.

According to cricket records, E. Holden, playing for Gentlemen of England v. M.C.C. at Lord's in 1818, took 19 wickets for 398 runs. One man was absent in the second innings of M.C.C., and Holden was permitted to bowl throughout from each end. In the XII.-a-side match at Canterbury in 1861 between M.C.C. and Gentlemen of Kent, H. Arkwright, playing for the former, obtained 18 wickets for 96 runs—nine in each innings. During the course of a small match in Australia in 1781, F. R. Spofforth bowled down all ten wickets of his opponents in each innings.
