LANCASHIRE v. GLOUCESTERSHIRE.—After a long day's cricket yesterday at Liverpool, Lancashire obtained a significant victory over the Westerners by an innings and 30 runs. The defeat of Dr. Grace's team was in a large measure due to the magnificent display by Maclaren, the young Harrovian, who not only made his second century for Lancashire, but contributed his highest score in first-class cricket. He was batting three hours and a half out of the five hours the innings lasted, and he hit nineteen 4's. Scores:—Lancashire, first innings, 311; Gloucestershire, 142 and 139.

BRADNINCH v. KILLERTON.—This match was played on the ground of the former, and resulted in an easy victory for the home team. Messrs. F. W. Cuming and G. Marrack batted well for Bradninch, the former making 21 (not out), and the latter 8. For Killerton, J. Huxtable contributed 12, and E. A. Ashford 9. The bowling of E. B. Cuming and G. Marrack was very smart and effective, while E. Gould and J. Huxtable also did some good work for the visitors. Scores:—Bradninch, 68; Killerton, 37.

EXTON v. SOWTON.—Played on Saturday at Sowton. The home team being short, by the courtesy of the visitors' captain, who kindly lent one of his men to the home team, it was agreed to play ten a side. Sowton won on the first innings by 62 (A C Scott-Smith, 18; F G Searle, 20); to 56, F Moore, 19. In the second innings the home team knocked up 102 for five wickets, J M Wilcocks, F G Searle, and A C Scott-Smith playing vigorous cricket for 30, 17, and 31 not out respectively. For Sowton A J Pidsley's under-hand deliveries were again very successful, while for the visitors the youthful bowler G Stokes was most effective with the leather.

BUDLEIGH SALTERTON v. OTTERY ST. MARY.—Played at Salterton, and resulted in a win for the home team by 36 runs. E T Rookes and T J Christian contributed 48 and 21 respectively for Salterton. The scores were:—Budleigh Salterton—S Baker, b, 17; G Baker, b, 21; Captain Pepsy, b, 5; H F Semple, b, 0; T J Christian, b, 21; E T Rookes, c, 48; C Bond, b, 16; T G C Evans, c, 8; C E Hay, b, 12; F G Hobson, b, 0; J H Butler, not out, 0; extras, 10—158. EXETER v. SEATON.—This match was played at Seaton on Saturday, and ended in a draw. Exeter left Queen-street Station with only eight men, but were joined later on by a ninth, and this was all they could muster. Exeter won the toss and went to the wickets first. Thanks to the excellent batting of E Bent, who made 123 in first-class style, Captain Elgood (102, not out), and W Pett (27), the Exeter total stood at 287 for three wickets, and the innings then declared to be at an end. Seaton had a little more than two hours' batting, and scored 162 for three wickets, E Western (60, not out), F Southcombe (48, not out), and Rev. J. H. Copleston (32) being the top scorers. The fielding of the Exeter men as regards the "catches" was bad, several easy chances being missed. It will be seen that 449 runs were scored for the loss of six wickets only. Scores:—Exeter—W Pett, c Langdon, b Osmond, 27; R M Snow, b Osmond, 12; Captain Elgood, not out, 102; E Bent, c Langdon, b Osmond, 123; Captain Williams, not out, 7; W B Carter, A E Birkett, Seaton—Rev J H Copleston, c Roach, b Pett, 32; E Western, not out, 60; P F Elives, b Carter, 11; F Southcombe, not out, 48; S H Webb, 1 b w, b Birkett, 4; R Langdon, Nicholson, C Forward, A Copleston, Jones, and A Osmond, did not bat; extras, 7; total for three wickets, 162.

The Exeter Club continues to win matches. The Croydon Wanderers were easily vanquished at Graslawn on Tuesday, and on Thursday South Devon were beaten by 101 runs. On Saturday, however, when the city team left Queen-street Station composed of only eight men to meet Seaton, one doubted very much whether they would maintain their unbroken record. The difficulty experienced in raising elevens for out-matches is becoming almost a chronic complaint. This should not be the case in a Club like Exeter, with so many members. However, "All's well that ends well." With the assistance of Captain Elgood and E. Bent, who both passed the century, Exeter, on going in first, amassed the formidable total of 287 for three wickets, and then declared their innings closed. The tall scoring, however, was not all on Exeter's side for Seaton, on going in, compiled draw. Exeter's cricket week commences on the 10th inst. with a two days' match with Seaton Club, which, I understand, will be strongly represented.

The Royal Artillery had no difficulty in defeating Woodthorpe on Saturday. Captain Lloyd hit in free style, scoring 108 not out, while Sergeant Connell played careful cricket for 34. The result was that the soldiers compiled 174 for the loss of four wickets, against their opponents' 80. The Woodthorpe team was not at its full strength, but they might have kept down their opponents' total by being a little smarter in the field. It is somewhat amusing to watch a match at the Topsham Barracks. Occasionally the ball finds its way among the fodder or into a stable, and the fielder is at his wits' end to discover it. I should think this might easily be obviated.

To-day Graslawn will be occupied by the Exeter Garrison team and that of the King's Own Scottish Borderers. The game will commence at 11 o'clock, and the Garrison will be represented by Captain Lloyd, Captain Parlyby, Captain Elgood, Lieutenant Kirby, Lieutenant Williams, Mr R M Snow, Mr. E. J. Sanders, Colour-Sergeant Maedermott, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Tedburn, and A N Other.

CRYSTAL PALACE v. PLYMOUTH GARRISON.

Splendid weather yesterday favoured the first day's play in the match Crystal Palace v. Plymouth Garrison, and there was a large attendance of spectators at Mount Wise. Crystal Palace won the toss, and batted first against the bowling of Captain Scott and Sergeant Bates. The visitors batted remarkably well, and but for the irreproachable fielding of the Garrison would have reached a much higher score. The Garrison went to the wickets about three o'clock, and opened well. Crowther was caught when the score was at 56, and Cooper and Jervois added 40 before Cooper was easily caught at mid-on. Four runs later Jervois was dismissed, and Scott joined Coke. With the score at 92 Coke was clean bowled with a lob from Bicknell. Griffiths joined Scott, and 31 runs were added, when Heasman, with a hard catch, sent Griffiths back. Scott then hit out freely, and was caught after making 36 without giving a chance. E. E. Rowe and Claughton were quickly dismissed, and the Garrison had lost eight wickets down for 153. Bates and Thresher then made a splendid stand, both hitting out very freely, and 4's and 3's came very fast. When the score stood at 218, Thresher, who had previously given an easy chance, was snapped at the wicket. Finlaison joined Bates, and 4 runs were added before time was called, leaving the Garrison with 222 runs for the loss of nine wickets. Bates's 33, not out, was a fine exhibition.

CRYSTAL PALACE v. PLYMOUTH GARRISON.

Beautiful weather again favoured play at Mount Wise, and, as on the previous day, there were numerous spectators. The Garrison resumed batting with one wicket to fall. Bates, who was not out overnight for 35, again played a splendid game, making several hits to the boundary. Finlaison also played a careful game, keeping up his wicket until Bates was bowled for a splendid innings of 69. Palace opened their innings well, the first wicket not falling until 63 runs were telegraphed. Hensman then batted and mastered the bowling completely for some time. The innings closed for 233. The Garrison fielding was very poor. Going to the wickets at four o'clock with 113 runs to win the Garrison batted remarkably well, Scott heading the list with 36, the same total as in his first innings. Bates also did well for his 29. Garrison won by three wickets and 1 run.
