LLANDOVERY WIN EASILY.

Llandovery College met Pontyberem of Llandovery on Tuesday. The Collegians went first to the wickets, and capital batting displays by G. A. Thomas, E. A. Jones, and J. T. Davies carried the total to 143 runs for the loss of eight wickets, when the innings was declared closed. The visitors responded poorly, being dismissed for 66. W. B. Price batted destructively, capturing five wickets for 10 runs. Scores:—

MARSHAL LEAVING SURREY.

The rumour that the connection between the Australian cricketer, Alan Marshall, and the Surrey Club is to be severed, was confirmed by Mr. W. Findlay, the Surrey secretary, on Tuesday.

EAST V. WEST OF ENGLAND.

An important cricket match is to be played at Cardiff on June 25, 26, and 27, when teams representative of the East and West of England, captained by G. of the East and W. of the West, will meet. A United M'Garry and G. L. Jessop, will meet. A number of Gloucestershire City Club seven players at present, each one will be had from the respective, several. W. G. Bowden, Cadner, and T. A. L. Whitton, Welsh.

MONMOUTHSHIRE V. WESTERN VALLEY EIGHTEEN.

The Monmouthshire County Cricket Club opened its playing season on Wednesday at Newport, when they met a Western Valley eighteen, which had been selected with the dual object of giving the county XI a trial game, and of discovering, if possible, any new talent for the county ranks. The home eleven was captained by E. G. Phillips, and a new idea was given a trial in the person of Smith, the younger son, Dr. Brown, Prodegar, captained the visitors, and the Valley clubs which were represented were Tredegar, Ebbw Vale, Crumlin, Gwent, Ystradgynlais Park, Ystradgynlais, Blackwood, Newbridge, Llanallstudd, and Pontypridd. The Western Valley retained 111, but there were no big scores included in the total, which the county team chased with seven wickets down. Silverlock did well until he played on, and Rainford also batted attractively. Scores:—

THE YOUNGEST HEARNE.
There have been many cricketing families, but few have played as prominent a part in the history of the game as the HEARNES. J. T. Hearne, although in his forty-fourth year, is still a model of consistency, and, of course, no cricket bowl for ever, and what he returns it looks as if the honour of the family will be won in the hands of his young cousin, "J. W." There has seldom been such a remarkable bowling feat as that of "J. W." at Lord's the other day, for in the five overs he bowled after lunch he took seven wickets for two runs, his analysis for the innings being seven for 27.

ST. FAGAN'S IN FORM.
LORD WINDSOR AND SPILLER EACH PASS THE HUNDRED.

St. Fagan's opened their annual two-days' match at Howell Grange on Thursday, and having first on a scoring wicket, declared at 371 for four. Lord Windsor and W. Spiller played superbly together, the latter making 176 and his lordship 102, both not out. They hit splendidly all round, and treated each change of bowling with the same delightful freedom and confidence. Howell made 40 for one wicket in reply.

GLAMORGAN STILL UNQUALIFIED.
It is very generally thought that Glamorgan County have qualified for the semi-final of the Minor Counties' Championship. This is not, however, the case, as Beckwith, who are in the same division, have two matches to play, viz. home-and-home with Wiltshire. Both the Glamorgans, have only dropped three

BADINTON'S BOWLING SUCCEEDS AT CLIFTON.

Cardiff on Saturday journeyed to Bristol, and gained a meritorious victory over Clifton. Rain delayed the start till 1.25, when, having won the toss, the visitors commenced their innings. Twenty-two had been put on by W. F. Baskerville and Hunt ere the former was bowled by G. L. Battenbury and H. G. Symonds.

DECLARED TOO LATE. PLYMOUTH (MERTHYR) PLAY TILL TIME AT SWANSEA.

No morning play was possible in the match between Swansea and Plymouth (Merthyr) at Swansea on Saturday owing to rain. Play started at 1.15, and after two o'clock Swansea, winning the toss, went in. Percy Morris and E. A. Billings being the first batsmen. Cross and Becker bowled. Handy stepped generally replaced Harker, who caught Billings off Cross with the score at 22, and then Percy Morris, batting with Dr. Cameron, raised the score to 62 before he, too, was caught by Harker, this time off Handy. Dr. Cameron and Bancroft did some pretty hitting, but the latter was bowled by J. Williams. Bancroft was splendidly caught and bowled by Cross. Cross promised to make a big score, but Stanley was badly run out in attempting an impossible third run. At 4.45 Swansea declared their innings at 148 for six wickets, leaving Plymouth about an hour and three-quarters to bat. The home team failed in the task of getting Plymouth out in the time although they tried tricky slow bowling, and at 4.30 stumps were pulled up and the match drawn, seven of Plymouth's wickets having fallen for 24 runs.

"HAT TRICK" AT KILLAY.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE EARL OF PLYMOUTH'S ELEVEN.

The return match between the Earl of Plymouth's Eleven and the Public School Handicapped was played at Killay on Friday. The weather was fine, although there was a strong wind. The Earl of Plymouth's skipper was the team's best man in A. Gibson and G. K. Cordner. The home team entrusted the attack to A. P. James and E. Geo. Curdson was run out when 15 runs were illegitimate. Oppenheim, who followed, made a short stay. James then assisted Gibson to take the score beyond the half century, when the latter was unobscuredly run out. Several changes had taken place in the bowling before a separation was effected. Spiller was thrown out while attempting a run. The wicket was slow, and runs were very hard to get. W. Gibson hit two 6's in his merry innings. With five wickets down for 18 runs the innings was declared. The batting of A. Gibson, James, and W. Gibson was excellent.

The Handicapped started their innings with A. F. James and J. P. Edwards. De Towner and A. Gibson bowled for the visitors. The attack was so strong that runs came very slowly. Towner was in his best form, and gave the batsmen no peace. He accounted for eight wickets for 29 runs, and did the "hat trick." The innings closed for 18 runs. Score—

CRICKET.

PLYMOUTH (MERTHYR) V. TREDGAR.

W. Barker, Tredgar, took his benefit on Monday, 1910's Plymouth (with whom Barker formerly played) making their first visit to the Merthyr town. In consequence of the rain, a start was not made until four o'clock, and the attendance was disappointing. A. S. Webb batted cleverly for the visitors for 32, and S. Tucker gave a brilliant display for 33 not out. J. W. Butcher was top scorer for Tredgar, compiling 31 not out by excellent cricket. Score—

NO PLAY ALL DAY.

RAIN PREVENTS A BALL IN FIRST-CLASS MATCHES.

Five first-class county matches were to have opened on Monday, but the continuous rain of the previous night, renewed again at noon, rendered the wickets so such an extent that play was entirely out of the question, and a start in the following games was postponed until to-day—
 Middlesex v. Surrey, at Lord's.
 Hampshire v. Kent, at Bournemouth.
 Somerset v. Yorkshire, at Taunton.
 Lancashire v. Warwickshire, at Blackpool.
 Sussex v. Worcestershire, at Brighton.
 The rain was particularly unfortunate for the Bournemouth festival, where C. B. Fry is making his first appearance for Hampshire this season.

RAIN SPOILS AN INTERESTING GAME AT LLANDOVERY.

In the presence of a large and distinguished county gathering, a match between the Merriod and Single of Carmarthenshire commenced at Llandovery on Monday, but rain caused an early abandonment. Captain Gwynne, of Cligwyn, afterwards entertained the company to tea. Judge Hibber, who has recovered from his serious illness, was amongst those present.
