HAMPSHIRE v. LANCASHIRE. Played at Southampton on August 11, 12 and 13.

A GREAT PERFORMANCE.

Lancashire won by five wickets.

On Thursday last Hampshire made 344 in four hours and a-half and Lancashire replied with 47 without loss of a wicket. The former were well represented, but the latter lacked the services of Dean, who was absent owing to a chill. Stone, who made 47 with Mead and 98 in 70 minutes with Johnston, batted in excellent style for two hours and hit eight 4's: Johnston batted half-an-hour longer and made a 6 and ten 4's. The latter was out at 237, and after his departure Sprot, hitting freely, made 75 out of 101 in 65 minutes, his brilliant innings including two 6's and nine 4's. In the last 35 minutes of the day Lancashire scored 47 without loss. Hampshire quite outplayed the visitors on the second day, and when stumps were drawn were 350 runs on with four wickets in hand. Lancashire's first wicket did not fall until 103, but the good start was not maintained, the last nine wickets adding only 135. William Tyldesley batted well for a couple of hours. The Hampshire fielding was good, and, curiously, Cowie took the first five wickets and McDonell the last five. Going in the second time, Hampshire made 253 for six wickets by the end of the day. They owed a very great deal to Mead and Stone, who made 193 for the first wicket in two hours and a-quarter. Neither batsman made a mistake. Stone's chief hits were thirteen 4's, and Mead's a 6 and thirteen 4's. The latter players endeavoured to force the game, the consequence being that five more wickets fell for 60 runs in the last 40 minutes. On the third morning 43 runs were added for the loss of two more wickets, and then the innings was declared closed, leaving Lancashire 403 to make in five hours—a truly formidable task. The pitch, fortunately, was in excellent order and the visitors made a good start. Hartley and Tyldesley (W.) scored 100 for the first wicket in an hour, but 18 later Tyldesley (J. T.) was lbw for 11 and at lunch three men were out for 141. Then followed an excellent stand by Sharp and Makepeace, who placed the result beyond doubt by adding 242 together in two hours and 40 minutes. Sharp nearly played-on when 23 and might have been caught in the slips when 70, but he reached three-figures in two hours and, in all, was batting for less than three hours for his 150, in which were a 5 and twenty-two 4's. Makepeace was slower, but his effort was invaluable: he made 50 in 100 minutes and scored his 95 in two hours 50 minutes, hitting ten 4's. Lancashire made 404 for five wickets in four hours and a-half, winning with half-an-hour to spare. They were cheered enthusiastically by those present. Score and analysis:—
