WILTSHIRE CRICKET.

WILTS V. MONMOUTH.

In pleasant weather this return fixture was opened at Hardknott Park on Friday. The Wiltshire eleven for the first time this season included E. Trotman and J. R. Taylor, two promising young players. Wilts, winning the toss, began to bat on an easy wicket, E. Laverton and E. Trotman facing the bowling of G. Phillips and Silverlock. Laverton was quickly dismissed and his place was taken by E. Newman. Trotman was missed at point, and later both he and Newman were let off in the slips. Raikes and Williams, the former at 18 and the latter at 28, relieved Silverlock and Phillips respectively. They, however, resumed after a few overs. Trotman was eventually taken in the slips, the partnership having produced 71 runs. A. Newman failed to reach double figures, and J. R. Taylor then joined E. Newman and both played very skilfully. After ninety minutes' play they sent up the 100, and they continued to bat with great freedom up to the luncheon interval, when the score was 124 for three wickets. Wiltshire gave promise of making a heavy score, but the interregnum of the mid-day repast has often been followed with disaster, and this was the experience of the home representatives. E. Newman was caught in the slips without adding to his score. Going in at the fall of the first wicket, he assisted in adding 125 to the score in 105 minutes, his own contribution being practically one-half that number. R. W. Awdry started well with a good stroke to the boundary, but with the next ball he was defeated by Phillips, who had a remarkable record, taking six wickets at the trifling cost of 8 runs. After luncheon the remaining seven wickets were disposed of in half-an-hour, the innings having lasted two hours and ten minutes for 151. The feature of the Monmouth innings was the brilliant batting of Silverlock, E. S. Phillips, and Diver, who, between them, and "Mr. Extras" were credited with 198 out of a grand total of 232, which were obtained in two hours and fifty minutes. Wilts with a deficit of 81 entered upon its second venture, and in half-an-hour allowed before stumps were drawn had lost two wickets for 31.

The weather on Saturday morning was not propitious, a drizzling rain falling till about noon, and and it was not until twenty minutes past twelve that a start was made. A. M. Miller (13) and A. Newman (7), the not outs at the close of the previous day's play, resumed their innings opposed by Phillips and W. A. Williams. The captain hit in his usual resolute style, but at 57 a splendid ball from Phillips knocked out his middle stump. His 25 included five 4's, and one 3. R. W. Awdry partnered A. Newman, and the play became interesting. At 84 Williams retired in favour of Raikes. 100 appeared on the board, 43 runs having been made in twenty minutes. Silverlock displaced Raikes at 113, and the change met with success, for in his first over he dismissed Newman. The partnership produced 80, the retiring batsman's contribution of 39, including seven 4's and one 3. E. C. Laverton met with no better luck than he did in the first innings; he had only just opened his account when Silverlock claimed him also as one of his victims. J. R. Taylor joined Awdry and they remained together till the luncheon interval, when the score was 128 for the loss of five wickets. This excellent start was not maintained when play was resumed. Phillips at this stage of the game, as on the previous day, bowled with effect, and with one exception took all the wickets. Taylor was caught in the slips, and Trotman failed to score. Awdry, who went in at the fall of the third wicket, was eighth out with the score at 157. He gave one of his best displays, and sent the ball nine times to the boundary. The remaining two wickets only produced 10, and the innings, which lasted two hours and a quarter, closed for 167.

Monmouth required 87 to win, and these were obtained as the result of seventy minutes' play and the loss of two wickets. Stratton was out to a brilliant catch by the bowler, A. Newman, who took the ball quite close to the ground. Silverlock was caught by Awdry at 59, and the remainder of the runs were obtained in twenty minutes by E. S. Phillips and Diver. Scores:—

MINOR COUNTIES' CHAMPIONSHIP.

Wilts v. Monmouth.

Home County well Beaten.

This return match was commenced at Hardknott Park on Friday in pleasant weather. On the home side E. Trotman and J. R. Taylor appeared for the first time this season, and both rendered good service. Wilts, winning the toss, began on an easy wicket. The first wicket was soon accounted for, but when E. Trotman and E. Newman came together, despite frequent changes in the bowling, 71 runs were added before the partnership was severed. Runs continued to come freely, and at the luncheon interval the score was 124. On resuming Wilts had a most disastrous experience, the remaining seven wickets falling in half an hour, Phillips taking six at the trifling cost of 8 runs. The visitors, at three o'clock, commenced their innings, which was remarkable for the splendid batting display of Silverlock, E. S. Phillips, and Diver, who between them made 122 out of 332.

The match concluded on Saturday, Monmouthshire winning by eight wickets. Overnight Wiltshire were 50 in arrears with two wickets down. The not outs, Miller (13) and A. Newman (7), resumed their innings, and at 87 the captain was dismissed. On Awdry joining Newman, runs came freely, and at 84 Raikes relieved Williams. The century was reached as the result of 70 minutes' play. Raikes, not meeting with success, he was taken off, and his place, at 113, was taken by Silverlock, who in his first over dismissed Newman, and he also beat Laverton when he had just opened his account. Taylor joined Awdry, and they were together at the luncheon interval, when the score stood at 128 for the loss of five wickets. After luncheon Phillips repeated his success of the previous day, and in 35 minutes the innings closed for 167. The visitors had only 87 to get to win, and these were obtained in 70 minutes. LEICESTERSHIRE v. SURREY.

Played at Leicester on August 25, 26 and 27.

Surrey won by an innings and 118 runs.

Surrey gained a winning advantage on the first day when, after dismissing the home side in an hour and three-quarters for 94, they scored 302 for six wickets in three and a-quarter hours. The Leicestershire men were evidently under the impression that the wicket would become more difficult as the day advanced, and in an endeavour to score quickly lost all their wickets cheaply. Sharp and Coe added 28 in 40 minutes, the former hitting two 6's in his 83 and the latter carrying out his bat for 15. Hobbs batted superbly for Surrey, although missed when 73, and in making 116 out of 198 in 185 minutes hit two 6's and thirteen 4's; with Hayward he made 68 in an hour and with Hayes 132 in 75 minutes. There was a heavy downfall of rain in the night, but a drying wind enabled play to be resumed just before four o'clock on Friday. During the 150 minutes play was in progress Surrey completed their innings for an addition of 57 and got four Leicestershire wickets down for 198. Campbell batted admirably for an hour and a-quarter, but he might have been caught at long-on when 42. The home side made a poor start upon going in the second time, losing Wood at 23, Whitehead at 84 and Coe at 42. Then, however, Sharp and Knight added 27 and the latter and Crawford 39 without further loss. Knight gave an extremely good display and carried out his bat for 60 at the end of the day. Crawford was bowled on the third day with only 2 runs added and with no one else reaching double-figures the match was concluded by ten minutes past twelve. Knight played a most skilful innings on a bowlers' wicket, scoring 73 in two hours and hitting two 6's and five 4's. Score and analysis:—
