WILTSHIRE CRICKET.

WILTSHIRE'S FIRST MATCH.

Beaten by Surrey 2nd.

The Wiltshire County team opened its season on Thursday, at the Oval, when Surrey's second eleven proved too strong for it. The visitors went in first, and after some fairly even batting ran up a total of 175. Sellick played good cricket for 44, the top score of the venture, but with the exception of Dibsdall and Awdry the others fared none too well against the bowling of Platt and Goatly. Surrey began well by scoring 80 for the first wicket. Brooker hit seven 4's, and some spirited play saw 159 runs on for the loss of four wickets. Goatly then punished the attack freely, and looked like reaching three figures. He should have been easily caught from a skier in the slips when 98, and was later caught and bowled when only one short of his hundred. The day's play closed with a "declaration" by Surrey at 298 for seven wickets, or 121 ahead.

In spite of heavy rain the match was continued (at a quarter to five) on Friday, when Surrey attempted to force a complete victory. Wiltshire had hopes of avoiding desperate straits when 73 runs were up for the loss of only two wickets, but matters went wrong for a time, and half the side was out for 86. Then, however, Newman and Davenport prevented a further Surrey success for twenty minutes, and the latter and Miller stood for the last quarter of an hour against steady bowling and averted the innings defeat. Only C. S. Awdry made runs confidently. Surrey's consolation was three points for a win on the first venture.

LEICESTERSHIRE v. KENT.

Played at Leicester on June 9, 10 and 11. Leicestershire won by 111 runs.

The home side had every reason to be satisfied with what they did on Thursday, seeing that in four hours and three-quarters they scored 257 and in the last 30 minutes of the day got down the wickets of Dillon, Hutchings and Fairservice for 13 runs. Wood's defensive innings at the start of the game was valuable, though when he was out, after batting for 125 minutes, half the side were out for 90. Coe, however, carried off the honours of the day with a faultless innings of 77 which included nine 4's, chiefly off-drives and well-timed cuts. Crawford, though scoring 37 out of 60 in 50 minutes, was not at his best. Astill and Shields caused some surprise and no little enthusiasm by adding 45 for the last wicket in 50 minutes. Kent, as stated, quickly met with three disasters before play ended for the day. A plucky stand of 60 by Huish and Humphreys improved matters on the following morning, but after they had been parted the bowlers gained the upper hand and the score was only 120 when the eighth wicket fell. Then Hubble and Blythe put on 50 together and the latter and Fielder 36, but Kent were 45 behind when the innings closed. Going in again, Leicestershire made 152 for four wickets by the end of the day, being then 197 runs ahead with six wickets in hand. After Knight had been got rid of at 15, Wood and Whitehead added 98 together in two hours, each reaching the half-century. For a time on the third morning the bowlers met with success, three wickets going down for 30 runs. Astill and Shipman, however, added 51 for the ninth wicket in 35 minutes, and Kent were left with 291 to win—a heavy task—and four hours and a quarter in which to bat. At 27 Humphreys was very finely caught at slip, but following his departure Dillon and Seymour put on 50 together in 45 minutes. After the latter's departure Dillon and Hutchings added a further 46, the former batting altogether for an hour and three-quarters for 56. Against Shipman and Astill the last six wickets went down for 30 runs, the last five adding only 18: three fell at 178, and the innings closed a run later. Score and analysis:—

DERBYSHIRE v. SURREY.

Played at Derby on June 9 and 10. Surrey won by ten wickets.

M. C. Bird, winning the toss for Surrey, put the home side in as the wicket had not recovered from previous heavy rain, and that he was thoroughly justified in his course of action is apparent from the fact that, after Derbyshire had been got rid of for 122, the visitors made 210 for the loss of only four wickets. Smith was well suited by the state of the pitch and took seven wickets during the innings for 36 runs, the only players to reach double-figures being Cadman and Chapman, who put on 61 together in an hour after four wickets had fallen for 30 runs. The former played an excellent game, but by far the finest cricket of the day was shown by Hobbs, who carried out his bat for 124, made without a mistake. Driving was a feature of his display, but he also made some good strokes to leg and with Bush added 82 in 50 minutes. On Friday Abel was bowled after the fifth wicket had increased the score by 62 in 40 minutes, and at 237 Hobbs' fine innings was brought to a close. The latter made his runs without a chance and hit thirteen 4's. The last six wickets fell for 51 runs, the innings closing for 201. Going in the second time, Derbyshire were given a good start by Newton and Needham, who took the score to 79, but after they had been parted the side collapsed. The last six wickets fell for 23, and Surrey won easily by ten wickets. Score and analysis:—
