NORTHUMBERLAND v. CHESHIRE.

Northumberland's team will differ in only one respect from the combination gaining the win over Staffordshire, in the two-days' match to begin with Cheshire on the County ground, Jesmond, this morning, the Rev H. White taking the place of Richardson. Northbury is again unable to play for Northumberland, and his medical adviser is of opinion that he will not be recovered from his indisposition for a fortnight at the least. Play against Cheshire will begin this morning at 11.30, and Northumberland's team will be—F. W. Gillespie, S. Anderson, C. F. Stanger-Leathes, C. M. Skinner, B. S. Cumberlege, N. R. E. Wilkin, son, N. E. Barber, Rev H. White, T. Ullathorne, Elsey, and Milne.

TYNEMOUTH v. BENWELL.

At Preston Avenue, North Shields, to-morrow, at 2 p.m.
Tynemouth: F. Haswell, W. R. Davies, W. J. Pulman, J. Knowles, W. M. Purves, R. Whitehorn, H. Lee, J. T. Tucker, J. B. Duncan, Lieut. H. Cooper, and Hickton.

THE COUNTY GAME AT BLACKFYNE.

A report gained general currency in the Consett district during the past few days that the Consett and District's club's ground at Blackfyne had been condemned as unfit for the County game between Durham and Norfolk, on the 27th and 28th July; but we are officially informed that such is not the case, and that the match will be played at Blackfyne as originally arranged.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY CRICKET.

TO THE SPORTING EDITOR OF THE NEWCASTLE DAILY JOURNAL.

Sir,—I trust you will allow me through the medium of your paper to testify to my appreciation of the great improvement which has taken place in our county cricket in recent years, and particularly to express the great pleasure which I experienced in witnessing the second day's play in the county team's engagement with Staffordshire. I did not have the opportunity of watching the game yesterday, but the local press has already paid due praise to Barnes' brilliant performance with the ball. That it was again a bowler's wicket was evident from the start, and, under the conditions, the splendid game played by G. F. Stanger-Leschen, F. W. Gillespie, and S. Anderson is worthy of unstinted praise. This, followed up by the magnificent bowling of Elsey and Milne, coupled with the excellent fielding—worthy, I consider, of any first-class county team—gave the goodly company of spectators a treat which will long be remembered. Racing is said to be the sport of kings. I consider cricket to be the king of sports, and my object in writing is to urge all those who have a love for the game to do their utmost to assist those gentlemen—no mention names would I think, be invidious—who have done such excellent work towards its improvement and development in Northumberland. The greatly improved gates both in minor county and league matches during the present season are no doubt very encouraging to the committee, but I think there are very large numbers—owners of the game—who might do something more. Let them become subscribers.

As in the most of things, financial support is a most important element towards success, and the necessary good professional talent cannot be procured without it. I believe the committee are anxious to obtain such talent, and if we Northumbrians have a genuine ambition—as I believe many have—to ultimately see our county ranking in first-class cricket, this is the time and this the peculiar way to help to that end.

R.G.J.
